EDITOR'S PREFACE

I.

AN editor of Warren's Book is bound to say something about the author. But there is not much to add to what he himself has told us¹.

His father, the Reverend Samuel Warren, was Vicar of Ashford in Kent. William Warren was born on 27th April, 1683, in the house that served as the parsonage of that parish. He entered Trinity Hall as a Sizar in 1700; was elected a Scholar in January 170½; became a Pensioner two years later; and graduated as Bachelor of Laws in 1706. Six years more passed before his election to a Fellowship, on Walter Hewke's foundation, in September 1712². He was ordained and appointed Curate of St Edward's Church in Cambridge in 1716; was admitted to the degree of Doctor of Laws in 1717; and became Vice-Master of his College—a post of responsibility with a non-resident Master—on 11th January, 172½. For several years he served the College as Bursar: the accounts for the year 1742 are in his hand. But about that time his health gave way; and after suffering for nearly two years from a cancer in the cheek, he left Cambridge in the autumn of 1743, and returned to Ashford, "in hopes that his native country air might be of service to him in the melancholy situation he was in³." Change of place, however, brought him no relief. He died at Canterbury 3rd January, 1744, and was buried in the churchyard of his early home⁴.

His epitaph is as simple and unpretentious as his life.

"The meekest and best-natured creature in the world,"—that is Cole's estimate of him². And whenever he speaks of Warren it is always in a tone of affection and esteem.

II.

To describe Warren as "a laborious and judicious antiquarian," as Cole does³, is to overshoot the mark. His interest in antiquities was genuine: he loved to discuss such subjects with others⁴. But in strenuous and persistent toil, both Baker and Cole outstrip him. Their proud array of folios, lengthening year by year, contrasts signally with his one modest volume. Cole's Collections are works of art; for he had exceptional skill with both brush and pencil. Warren's illustrations—such as they are—we owe to the "ingenious Scholar of the House⁵." Cole's commentary, prejudice and passion notwithstanding, is often more attractive than his text; and his digressions and interludes reveal not only a learned author, but a loveable man. Warren never embroiders: indulges neither fancy nor feeling; gives us no glimpses of antipathy and few of enthusiasm. He does his work soberly, steadily, and scrupulously. True to his own motto¹, "All selfness he forbears." The Society is his one thought, his only pride. His book may be a dull book; but only a duller heart will fail to find in it the expression of a deep and loyal devotion.

III.

The sources from which Warren drew his materials may be briefly indicated: some have been lost; some still survive. They are—

- (1) Deeds,—charters, agreements, conveyances, and the like,—stored in the College Treasury.
- (2) The five volumes of "Miscellanea," containing documents of all kinds, some originals, some copies, arranged and bound, probably under his direction.
- (3) "The Master's Statute Book," which besides statutes contained entries relating to many matters. In Warren's time, as he tells us, it was "much worn and well nigh lost"²: since then it has disappeared.
- (4) "The College Register," containing lists of elections, admissions, and other records. Its full title was "Liber Actorum et Rerum memorabilium Aulae Trinitatis Inceptus Anno Domini 1557." Fifteen sheets—thirty pages—were taken out, as the book was in tatters, and bound up afresh in 1726³.
- (5) The account-books—" Computationes "—and lease-books of the College.

² V. B., p. 22.

³ See pp. 182 foll.

- (6) The volume of "Scrutinia," recording the votes at elections of members on the foundation, and now containing other documents transferred from the "Miscellanea."
- (7) "The Order Book," dating from 1699.

Warren frequently refers to two other books of a later date :—

- (8) "The Vellum Book with Green Strings" [Ed. Simpson Custos, 1735, on the inside of the cover], containing copies of Bateman's statutes, the statutes of the various foundations, and other documents¹.
- (9) Another volume lettered on the back "*The Old Vellum Book*²," in which Warren transcribed many of the documents found in (3). The note inside the cover—"This is the Book described by Warren in his Collectanea as the Old Vellum Book with Green Strings"—is misleading. The two books must be carefully distinguished.

IV.

Warren began his task, it would seem, in April 1730. The book was unfinished when he left Cambridge in 1743. There are gaps in several places that he must have meant to fill³. He set out with a fairly definite plan, and followed it for some way. But great masses of his material were thrown into an unshapely Appendix, where sections dealing with the same subject are often widely separated from one another. Additions were freely made by other members of the Society, and the book was treated as a depository of College lore. Unfortunately the chronicle was irregular and kept with too little care, as appears in the following Order:—"Whereas since the year 1740 various transactions relative to this College have been suffered to remain unrecorded: it is ordered that at the present and every subsequent Audit a committee of the Fellows, including the two Divinity Fellows and the Bursar, shall prepare and insert in Warren's Book an account of such occurrences as may be considered to form part of the History and Proceedings of Trinity Hall¹." But the Order has often been neglected; and, though other records contain the transactions of later years, the book itself remains incomplete. To write the missing chapters and to round the record would have been to assume larger responsibilities than I had undertaken: no such duty was entrusted to me. My task was to deal with the book as I found it; to fill in dates and details; to make it intelligible, where it was obscure; to make it accessible to those who care to know the history of the Society to which they belong. My additions in the text, therefore, have been few. They do not go beyond the Regulations of the Goodbehere Fellowship and Cole's descriptions of the old Hall and the renovated Chapel. In the notes, however, greater freedom was warranted; and I have used it. Warren's own notes, which are few, stand as part of the text.

³ e.g. see pp. 62-4, 88.

The substance of the original has been scrupulously retained; and the form also in a large measure. The abbreviations of the transcriber, though his system is neither complete nor consistent, have not been discarded. But in the arrangement, for reasons that seem to me sufficient, I have dealt freely with Warren's text. Cole, who after more than one ineffectual attempt, at last obtained the book on loan and transcribed it, found that it was no history, though it contained "large materials" for one. He would have recast it; but the difficulties of the task proved too much for him, and he was "forced to follow Warren's method." For without an index, he says, it would have been "an intollerable Trouble" to have been perpetually hunting after Warren's references¹. I have made bold to reshape the book throughout. The Appendix—nearly two hundred pages—has been broken up, and the portions of it have been incorporated in the chapters to which they belong. The body of the book has been treated in the same way. At the same time nothing has been omitted, save references and explanations that the new arrangement has made unnecessary. The pages of the original are given in the margin. Anyone, therefore, who wishes to turn to a passage in the manuscript can do so with ease. Nothing has been changed wantonly or lightly, or for the sake of change. All has been done with pious and reverent hands, as is seemly when we touch the tombs and the treasures of the dead.

THE FOUNDER

(1) BATEMAN AND HIS FOUNDATION.

In the Reign of K. Edward y^e 3^d The Right Rev^d Father in God, [145] William Bateman, L^d B^p of Norwich Founded Trinity Hall for y^e Study of the Canon and Civil Laws. It had been before an Hostle belonging to y^e Monks of Ely: John of Cranden¹ one of their Priors purchas'd it for his Monks to Study in wⁿ they came to Cambridge. B^p Bateman afterwards made an Exchange with them, & gave y^m several Parsonages for y^e s^d Hostel, & converted it to a College or Hall; and accordingly in the Literae Foundationis Collegij He says thus, "Et volumus quod collegium scolarium sup^adictū vocetur col-
"legiū scolarium sancte Trinitatis de Norwico, et q^d domus q^am
"inhabitabit dictum collegiū nominetur aula sancte Trinitatis de

The B^p of Ely's Licence for Building a Chapel bears Date May 30. 1352⁵. The Statutes w^{ch} B^p Bateman gave y^e College bear Date June 1st. 1352: were Confirm'd by the Arch-Bishop of Canterbury Dec: 1. 1352: were Confirm'd afterwards by y^e University of Cambridge Dec: 9. 1352. B^p Bateman afterwards added an Explanatory Statute concerning Elections &c. bearing Date Aug: 14. 1354⁶. He design'd (as appears by y^e Statutes) to have Founded a Master & Twenty Fellows beside Two or Three Scholars; But He Dying before He had completed his Design'd Foundation (viz. A.D. 1355 at Avignon) [146] He Left what was thought to be sufficient only for y^e Maintenance of a Master & Three Fellows, & for y^e Founding Two Scholarships. The other Fellowships & Scholarships y^t now are beside those already CARESWICKE¹.

[449] Extract of a Letter from Mr Peck, Author of y^e *Antiquities of Stanford*².

"It was customary of old time wⁿ y^e Head of any Conventual Church or Monastery died (& Norwich was conventual as well as Cathedral) to send a religious Person of that House with a Character of y^e Defunct, & a Request y^t his Name might be entered on y^e Beadroll (or Dypticks) of y^e neighboring religious Houses, [450] y^t they might be there prayed for, with assurance of their readiness to do y^e same for that Religious House, upon y^e death of any Head or other member of it. This explains y^e monkish verse at y^e end,

"Vestris nostra damus, pro nostris vestra rogamus.

"The Monk of Norwich comes therefore to y^e Nuns of Careswike & begs this Favor for y^e late B^p Bateman. The Nuns consent, & y^e B^ps Name is entered in their Obituary—Anima Dñi Witt &c.—The monk, who went to see it done, takes a Copy of this entry as he saw it entered in y^e Book of Careswike, wch he calls Titulus Eccliae B. Mariae Sanctimonialiū de Careswike, & carries back to shew his Brethren, y^t they may be assur'd he saw it entred totidem verbis.

"But where was this Nunnery of Careswike? Why I will tell you. Careswike, as I take it, is now called Caswike. I have been at it. It is in y^e Parish of Uffington within 3 miles of Stanford² in Lincolnshire, & consists now of only one House, y^e present ownner whereof is Sir Tho: Trollop Bar."

Mr Peck's Letter to me is Dated Godeby 27 June, 1734.

 J. Sparke. Inter Scriptores Petriburgenses p. 135.)

Mr Wadham Knatchbull late Fellow of Trinity Hall return'd [461] from his Travels A.D. 1740. I had desir'd him, in case he shou'd see Avignon, to search in y^e Church there where Bp Bateman was Buried, to see whether there was any Monument or Inscription, or any Memorial of Him remaining in the Church. But he found none. [462]
 One of y^e Priests of y^e Church was so kind as to search y^e Register, to see what discovery he cou'd make there; but it was in vain. The account wch he gave by a friend to Mr Knatchbull in French was w^t follows here in English:—

"Sir

"After having twice run over y^e register of Bishops, Arch-
 "bishops, Cardinals, & Popes, buried in our Church, I have not "been able to find there the name of the Bishop whom you inquire
 "after: in all likelyhood he was not inserted in y^e List. I am "very sorry it is not in my power to satisfy your curiosity in this "matter: I should be heartily willing by any other instance to give "you marks of my respectfull attachment. I am, with all possible
 "regard,

"Sr your very Humble

"and very obedient serv^t

"Roque p̄re."

See Mr Roque's original French Letter wch is translated into English by Mr Knatchbull, Miscellanea, vol. v. [103].

(6) PORTRAITS OF BATEMAN.

[425] Memorandum. July 27. 1731. William Robins took a Draught of our Founder Bp Bateman from an original impression of his Seal to his Appropriation of Stalham to Trinity Hall Dated Nov: 10. 1352. This Seal (or rather y^e impression of the Seal) is y^e same with that of y^e Bishops to our College Statutes. From y^e Draught Robins made a Mezzotinto Print.

See Robins's Mezzotinto Print of Bp Bateman at y^e Beginning of this Book.

[364] Faber's Print of Bp Bateman was not taken from any Picture of Him: for there is no Picture of him any where in being, so far as we know. I have been told indeed of a Picture somewhere in Norfolk, y^t has been thought to be Bp Bateman: But it is much to be doubted. I remember when Faber was at Cambridge about his design'd work, I ask'd him what he wou'd do with regard to our Founder? He told me he designed to make a Print of a venerable old man in an Episcopal Habit & that was to pass for Bishop Bateman. And Faber's Son has since told me y^t y^e Print of Bp Bateman was taken from a Picture or a Print of Spondanus. Spondanus was Bp of Pamiers¹. Several other also of y^e Prints of y^e Founders of Colleges both in Cambridge & Oxford are not taken from any Pictures in being of y^m, but are only such as Mr Faber pleas'd to make them.

¹ Henri de Sponde: b. 6 Jan., 1568; d. 18 May, 1643. Bishop of Pamiers 1627-39. Portrait by Lubin in Perrault, Hommes Illustres, vol. I., v. I copyed y^e abovesd acct of y^e Foundation &c fm an old Table Hanging up in y^e Master's Lodge. The account is an Imperfect one in sev^l Particulars of it. Where I differ fm it in any p^t of this Book, I have follow'd w^t I took to be better authority yⁿ y^e abovesd account.

- [3] There are Two old Tables, belonging to y^e Master's Lodge, containing some account of y^e Foundation & Benefactions of this College, & a List of y^e Masters of it. The one, viz. the largest & y^e latest written, is about Two foot & an half Square. The account of y^e Foundation &c. is on vellum fram'd. In y^e Center is y^e account of y^e Founder & Benefact^{rs}; round wch are y^e Arms of y^e sev^l Masters of this College, almost all of y^m in their proper colours: The Coats of Arms are plac'd on several Leaves growing on two Ste^ms wch spring fm a golden mitre at y^e lowermost corner of y^e Table, where are y^e College Arms & these words "W Bateman Founder." On several Leaves growing on y^e same Ste^ms, & opposite to y^e Arms of y^e Masters of this College are y^e names of y^e several Masters. The Larger of these Two Tables seems to be in y^e main a Copy of y^e former smaller one wch is done on paper fram'd, but is now much defac'd, wch I suppose was y^e reason of the Larger & fairer one being made.

The foremention'd account (pp. 11, 12) of y^e "Foundation of The "Hall of the Holy and Blessed Trinitie &c.," together with The List of The Masters of Trinitie Hall, wch follows (pp. 13, 14), is a Copy from y^e Larger of the Two foremention'd Tables.

In y^e Series Custodum Aul. Trin: pp. 152-4 of this Book, I have (in y^e main) follow'd this List of y^e Masters. Where I have differ'd from it I have follow'd ye accounts I met with in ye old [3] College Register & Scrutiny Book, and Miscell: vol: 1, Archiv: Collegij. One thing may be observ'd in this place; That Dr Caius's List of our Masters is an Imperfect one; and y^t Dr Fuller says thus in His History of ye University of Cambridge: "After Robert "Branch, I wou'd nominate Henry Wells, Mr of Arts; & next to [4] "Him Marmaduke Lumley. I wou'd also after Stephen Gardiner "place Walter Haddon for one year in ye reign of King Edward "ye Sixth, & after Him Dr Mouse in ye same Kings Reign; then "Gardiner again in ye first of Queen Mary, & Mouse again after "Gardiner's death." p. 48 of Hist.¹

VIII. SIMON THORNHAM.

Gules, a Lion passant guardant between three Mascles Or.

IX. WILLIAM D'ALLING.

The same with Simon D'alling, but not Differenc'd with a Crescent. In y^e other Table the Crescent is on William's Coat, & not on Simons. I take y^e older Table to be right.

X. EDWARD SHOULDHAM.

Sable, on a Fess Argent Three Crescents of y^e first between three Shovelers of y^e second.

XI. JOHN WRIGHT.

Sable, a Cheveron Ingrayl'd between three Flowers de lis Or, on a Chief of y^e Second Three Lozenges Azure.

Argent, on a Fess Gules Three Garbs Or, all between two Cheverons Azure, each of y^e Last charg'd with three Escallops of y^e Field, a Crescent for Differ: Sable. The Escallops appear in y^e older Table but not in y^e other.

[7]

XXII. ROBERT KING.

Sable, a Lion rampant Double-Tayl'd Argent, Arm'd & Lang'd Gules.

XXIII. JOHN BOND.

Or, a Fess Sable.

The Arms of y^e Masters of y^e College come no lower yⁿ this. But there are Blanks for y^e Arms of four Masters more, beside that for y^e 5th Master.

[314]

In y^e year 1722 &c. the Arms of y^e Four Masters, viz. Exton, Oxenden, Bramston, Lloyd, were painted on y^e foresd Table, & are as follows :

S^r Thomas Exton's, Quarterly, The 1st Gules, a Cross between 12 Cross Crosslets Fitchee Or. The 2nd Or, a Cross Ingrayl'd parted per pale Gules & Sable, on a Chief of y^e Second a Lion passant of y^e First. The Third Q^r as y^e Second, y^e Fourth as y^e First.

Dr Oxenden's, Argent, a Chevron Gules between 3 Oxen passant Sable.

Dr Bramston's, Or, on a Fess Sable 3 Plates.

Sir Nathanael Lloyd's, Quarterly, The 1st Parted per Fess Sable & Argent, a Lion Rampant Counterchang'd. The Second; Argent, a Chevron Gules between 2 Pheons in Chief pointing at one another, & a Third in Base pointing upwards, Sable. The Third as y^e Second, y^e Fourth as y^e First.

At y^e Lowermost Corner of this Table are y^e College Arms, viz. [7] Sable, a Crescent within a Bordure Ermin (y^e Ermin in y^e Bordure almost worn out), thereupon a Mitre fin whence y^e Stems proceed, on the Leaves of wch y^e foremention'd Arms of y^e Masters are painted. On y^e uppermost Corner is a Wreath Or & Sable, thereupon Pegasus Sable, Charg'd with Six Stars Or (y^e Crest of Master Bond). On y^e Dexter Corner of y^e Table are y^e University Arms, viz. Gules, on a Cross Ermin between Four Lions Passant Guardant Or a Book clos'd, y^e Cover Sable, Clasp'd & Leav'd of y^e Third. On y^e Sinister Corner are y^e College Arms Impal'd with Dr King's. The Arms on y^e other Table (viz. Paper fram'd, being y^e older of y^e two) reach no farther down yⁿ to Dr Eden's; The Colours of several of y^m are faded, & y^e writing almost worn out. Near y^e middle of this Table are Three Coats of Arms in a Line: the First Sable, a Crescent within a Bordure Ingrail'd Ermin; wch, I suppose, stands for y^e College Arms, tho it is not exactly according to y^e Patent fin y^e Heralds Office, a copy of wch follows (p. 18): The Second Sable, a Crescent Ermin within a Bordure Ingrail'd Argent; This Insign'd with a Mitre, betokening it (I suppose) to be Bp Bateman's Coat of Arms, tho it does not exactly answer y^e account given in our Master's Statute Book concerning Bp Bateman's Arms, of which see p. 18 hujus Libri: The Third Coat is Dr Eden's. The older of y^e two foremention'd Tables, viz. That of Paper, seems [8] to have been done in Dr Eden's time; The other, viz. That of Vellum in y^e time of Bond. But afterwards wⁿ King was Relected, Bond's Name seems to have been eras'd, & King's plac'd in y^e room of it.

(3) COLLEGE SEALS.

We have Three Seals, one of Brass, & two of Silver. The Brass one (wch we take to be about as old as our Statutes) makes this Impression, Letters round Sigillum...

[Stephani M.A.T. CAN.

Warren appears to have failed in making out the impression after the word Sigillum. I think the seal is that of Stephen Gardiner Bishop of Winchester & Master of the College A.D. 1525. and the letters M.A.T. CAN. to stand for Magister Aulae Trinitatis, CANTabrigiensis. W. Marsh. (Vice-Master) 1845¹.]

¹ The inscription is worn, and probably has become less distinct in the sixty years since Marsh examined it. The C might be read as L. But on the whole Marsh's interpretation seems to be justified.

- [8] How far this agrees with y^e "Signum—Collegij quo Libri—Con—"signantur de quo...in fine Statutorum fit mentio": See pp. 19—20, and 49 hujus Libri.

The other two Silver Seals represent y^e Trinity, The Father holding y^e Cross with y^e Son Crucify'd on it, over y^e Son's Head a Dove: at y^e Foot of y^e Cross an Escoccheon viz. a Crescent Ermin within a Bordure Ingrail'd. On y^e Great Seal are Cherubs, & round all are these words: "S. Collegij: scolariū: aule S^ce. trinitatis: "de. norwico: in Vniuersitate: Canteb^r:+": see an Impression of our Coff Great Seal Oct: 6. A. 19. Henr: 8 in Queenbury Drawer. On y^e Little Silver Seal are no Cherubs, but these words are round y^e foresd^t representation, "Sigillū custodis collegij S^ce trinitatē "cantebriḡ."

In y^e First Leaf of y^e Master's Book of Statutes in "y^e petygre "of the Batemans," we find y^t "y^e Bushop gave a Coat Sylver & "Sables oon Cressant ermyn wh^a a scuchion engrayled¹." Wch words being compared with y^e account given before, together with y^e Copy of y^e Patent for our College Arms, wch follows next, I conclude, y^t how unskilfully soever y^e Painters may have drawn our Founders Arms, or those of y^e College in other respects, yet y^t wⁿsoever we see y^e Bordure Ermin & not Ingrail'd, we are then to understand y^e College Arms to be meant, and y^t wⁿ we see the Bordure without ermin but Ingrail'd, then we are to understand Bishop Bateman's to be meant.

[9] (4) COLLEGE ARMS, &c.

At y^e Request of Dr Hervy &c. The Arms wch were set forth & allow'd to our College Sept: 17. 1575, were as follows, viz. Sable, a Crescent within a Bordure ermine: For the Crest, on the Helmet Mantl'd Gules, Doubl'd Argent, a Wreath Argent & Sable, thereupon a Lion Sciant Gules, holding a Book, y^e Cover Sable, y^e Leaves & Clasps Or.

Ermine a Cross Patee Argent.

- [342] The Arms mark'd (1) in y^e next Page were done by one Jackson but imperfectly: 'Twas thought fit therefore to have y^e College Arms done by one Cole an Ingraver in London. John Bunce therefore an Industrious & Ingenious Scholar of this College made a Draught of y^e College Arms as mark'd (2) from those Depicted in y^e original Patent in our Treasury. From this Draught Cole cut y^e Arms on a Copper Plate, of wch That is the Impression, mark'd (3). Cole's Plate with Fifty Prints taken from it cost me a Guinea. I find in y^e Bursar's accounts for y^e year 1706, y^t y^e sum^{£ s. d.} of 05: 12: 6 was paid for "Copper Plate of the College Arms, Prints & pasting

Verum q̃a in dictis ordinacōnis & fundacōnis literis ordinandi faciendi & statuendi psonis dicti Collegij regulam vite scolastice directiuam ac statuta que necessaria vel vtilia nostre p tempore consciencie viderentur in posterum plenam nobis & liberam reseruauimus potestatem: Nos volentes aliqua que pro n̄ro dicto collegio n̄ra cathedrali ecclia nobis successoribusq; n̄ris necnō pro reipublice cōmodo necessaria vel vtilia reputamus iuxta dictarum literarum continenciam facere statuere & ordinare ad ea pcedimus in hunc modum.

[180] DE NUMERO SOCIORUM DICTI COLLEGII & STUDENCIIUM
IN IURE CANONICO & CIUILI. Ra.

Inprimis statuimus & ordinamus qđ in collegio nostro sancte trinitatis p̄dicto sint ppetuo viginti & vnus socij quorum viginti vnus sociorum vnus sit custos collegij supradicti cui ceteri viginti socij habebunt prout infra describitur obedire. Item volumus quod de ceteris viginti socijs decem ad minus sint legiste & septem sint ad minus perpetuo in dicto collegio canoniste si & quantum psonarum facultas occurret vt sic legistis dicti collegij futuris temporibus transmigrantibus ad iura canonica audiend' decem de dictis viginti socijs sint ad plus in dicto collegio socij canoniste & deficientibus socijs canonistis tresdecim dictorum viginti sociorum ad plus socij sint legiste quousq; domino concedente sociorum numerus augeatur. Custos autem collegij qui pro tempore fuerit statim cum p̄fectus fuerit eligat an voluerit esse legista an canonista si status sui condiçō paciatur: dum tamen in scientia quam elegerit continuet quousq; deus sibi dederit pcedente tempore in dicta sciencia doctoratum.

DE OBEDIENCIA & GESTU SOCIORUM. R'ca.

Item statuimus & ordinamus qđ omnes socij dicti collegij presentes & futuri sint obedientes custodi dicti collegij qui pro tempore fuerit & eo absente vel impedito alteri socio locum suum tenenti quem ad hoc duxerit subrogand in licitis & honestis exercitium scolasticum dicte aule regimen ac cōmodum tangentibus & honorem. Quodq; omnes & singuli tam custos quam socij qui pro tempore fuerint studio in [181] facultatibus quibus institerint diligenter vacent ac in collegio & extra honeste quiete & modeste se habeant ac infra habitacōnem eorum latino inter se cōmuniter fruantur eloquio singulisq; septimanis ter videlicet secundis quartis & sextis ferijs de sero aliquam questionem [181] iuris canonici vel ciuili disputent in cōmuni nisi aliquo dictorum dierum legitime fuerint impediti quo casu hoc idem in crastino facere teneantur. Nullusq; sociorum collegij a dictis disputacōibus seu earum aliqua absq; causa raçonabili se absentet. Socium insuper aut alium habeant cotidie in sacra Scriptura lectorem in mensa, quem p notabilis temporis spacium iuxta arbitrium collegio p̄sidentis cum silençō audiant in cōmuni. Nullusq; alius non socius collegij ad faciend' cum eis moram p aliquos dies continuam admittatur absq; omnium sociorum assensu concordi nec cum eis vltius moram faciat quam de omniū vnanimi sociorum voluntate procedat.

DE HABITU & CONDICIONE SOCIORUM. R^a.

Item statuimus & ordinamus qđ custos & omnes socij dicti collegij qui pro tempore fuerint robis vnus secte cum longis tabardis seu epitogijs talaribus annis nouiter singulis induantur quodq; custos & socij omnes & singuli tam diebus legibilibus in scolis quam festiuis diebus p vias publicas incedentes tabbardis seu epitogijs talaribus cōmuniter vtantur lecture cōmunis p̄sertim tempore magistrorum nisi ex temporis qualitate aut alia causa raçonabili aliud duxint faciend'. Nullusq; socius ad postulandum in aduocatorum officio nec etiam ad procurandum in procuratorum offiçio in causis cōmunibus vt advocatus seu procurator cōmunis se occupet quouis modo nec etiam singulariter ex affecçone si tali cōcicio postulandi seu pcurandi a lectura vel studio poterit notabiliter impediri. Volumus enim qđ socij omnes studio intendant scolastico diligenter quousq; habiles [182] fuerint ad legend' & ex tunc ad legend' continue in statu bacalarij se contant: quousq; volumina in iure ciuili legiste & libros decretalium decretiste more plegerint consueto. Si quis autem custos aut socius notabiliter in corpore dissolutus inhonestus inquietus rixosus inobediens seu rebellis aut in studendo legendo seu pficiendo in scolis notabiliter negligens appareat in futurum p custodem collegij cum assensu maioris ptis sociorum collegij si socius fuerit vel p cancellarium ad suggestionem duarum p̄cium sociorum collegij si custos fuerit corrigatur & puniatur. Quod si quis eorum rebellis proteruus aut incorrigibilis notabiliter appareat in premissis vel aliquo p̄missorum tunc nisi post trinam moniçonem sibi p duas ptes soçorū collegij si custos fuerit vel p custodem cum assensu maioris ptis soçorū faciend' si socius fuerit trium ebdomadarum spacium continentium a p̄missis destiterit taliter quod iudicio maioris ptis sociorum manifeste appareat de omnibus et singulis p̄missis plene correctus & integraliter emendatus

- [182] a collegio & collegij cōmodo perpetuo excludatur. Custodes enim & socij dicti collegij qui pro tempore fuerint tam diu in dicto collegio remaneant quam diu caste honeste obedienter pacifice & cum studendi diligencia se habebunt & vltcrius eos nullū ius habere volumus in dicto collegio remanendi quin pro eorum defectibus in premissis possint per modum supius descriptum a dicto collegio perpetuo amoueri absq; cuiuscumq; appellaçonis remedio vel querele. Nos enim omnes & singulos sic correctos seu corrigendos ammotos seu ammovendos ab omni contradicçonis appellaçonis & querele remedio statuimus penitus excludendos. Custodes tamen p solum cancellarium Vniuersitatis Cantebrigg' cum deliberaçone duorum rectorum dicte Vniuersitatis & duorum doctorum regencium in dicta Vniuersitate qui non fuerint de collegio p̃dicto quos idem cancellarius duxerit
- [183] eligendos de facultatibus theologie iuris canonici vel ciuilibus & cum assensu dictorum rectorum & doctorum seu maioris ptis eorum & cum assensu concordi duarum p̃cium collegij supradicti. Socios vero p solum custodem cum assensu maioris ptis sociorum dicti collegij ex premissis causis volumus ammovery. Custodes autem collegij qui pro tempore fuerint quos circa regimen collegij & negocia eiusdem oportebit sollicitis & intentis vigillijs occupari a continuo scolastico excicio haberi volumus excusatos. Volumus insuper quod nullus de collegio nec custos nec alius ex quacumq; causa contra collegium nec contra aliquem de collegio causam appellaçonis nec querele nec aliquam aliam litem neq; in eccl'iastico neq; in sc̃lari foro seu iudicio prosequatur sine expresso consensu maioris & sanioris ptis collegij supradicti.

DE TEMPORE ELLECÇONIS ET FORMA. R^{ca}.

Item statuimus & ordinamus quod vacante custodia dicti collegij p mortem cessionem vel alio quouis modo fiat elecçō de custode p socios dicti collegij infra mensem. Interim autem senior vel sanior socius collegij vices gerat custodis. Elecçōnem autem p viam scrutinij fieri volumus & ille in quem maior pars sociorum consencerit iuris solempnitate submota p Vniuersitatis Cantebrigg' cancellarium absq; cause cognicōne protinus approbetur. Nullam autem potestatem habeat cancellarius p̃dictus elecçōnem predictam discutere vel eam reprobare nec aliam iurisdicçōnem propter hoc in electum nec eligentes exc̃cere: sed solum electum sibi p maiorem ptem sociorum collegij presentatum illico extraiudicialiter approbare. Quod si vota in diuersos diuisa fuerint ita quod nullus repiatur vota maioris ptis collegij habuisse ad eligend' redeant iterato ac sepius quousq; p maioris ptis elecōnem concordem eligatur aliquis in custodem eciam [183] elecōne facta primitus non cassata. Nullam enim iuris sollempnitatem sed solum maioris ptis consensum per viam scrutinij in custodis & [184] sociorum elecōne volumus observari. Quod si p elecōnem maioris ptis sociorum concordem infra mensem pūsum non fuerit collegio de custode tunc prouisio de custode pro illa vice ad cancellarium dicte Vniuersitatis qui pro tempore fuerit deuoluatur. Dum tamen cancellarius supradictus qui pro tempore fuerit aliquem socium dicti collegij doctorem aut bacalarium in iure canonico vel ciuili aut magistrum in artibus si talis repiatur ad hoc ydoneus in eodem: alioquin aliquem doctorem aut bacalarium iuris canonici vel ciuilis extra collegium in dicta Vniuersitate studentem vel magistrum in artibus in literatura famosum ad hoc ydoneum pficiet in custodem. Sed si locus alicuius socij dicti collegij quouismodo vacauerit in futurum volumus qđ p custodis & maioris ptis sociorum elecōnem concordem p uiam scrutinij vt pmittitur infra mensem alius subrogetur: alioquin ad solum custodem prouisio & ordinacō socij pteat illa vice. Salua nobis libera potestate ordinandi & disponendi de custode & socijs preficiendis & ammovendis dum fuerimus in hac vita.

DE PERSONIS IN LOCIS VACANTIBUS SUBROGANDIS. R^{ca}.

Item statuimus & ordinamus qđ si locus alicuius socij legiste vacauerit in futurum ad illum locum eligatur bacalaris aut scholaris triennalis iuris ciuilis aut magister aut bacalaris in artibus famosus qui infra vnus anni spacium incepturus foret si vellet continuare in facultate predicta. Si vero locus socij canoniste vacare contigerit tunc si septem non supfuerint in collegio p̄sbiti canoniste in locum vacantis eligatur in socium canonistam aliquis socius legista dicti collegij si quis eorum ad audiend' iura canonica & ad gradum p̄sbiti [185] voluerit transmigrare: alioquin alius de dicta Vniuersitate vel alia bacalaris iuris canonici vel ciuilis aut scholaris triennalis in altera dictarum facultatum aut magister seu bacalaris famosus in artibus infra anni spacium incepturus prout sup^o est exp̄ssum. Si autem superfuerint septem presbiti seu socij canoniste tunc in locum deficientis eligatur alius in socium legistam vel canonistam put maiori pti collegij videbitur faciend' nisi aliquis de socijs legistis dicti collegij migrare voluerit ad iura canonica audienda: quo casu ipsum omnimodo admitti volumus in socium canonistam dum tamen canonistarum numerus paciatur. Volumus insup quod in omni elecōne p̄fecōne & ordinacōne custodis & sociorum in posterum faciend' omnis affecō singularis conspiracō & p̄cialitas excludatur [185] vt sic simpliciter melior & p collegio vtilior quantum eis deus in consciencia ministrauerit eligatur. Saluo tamen semper quod in omnibus elecōnibus custodis ejusdem collegij & in elecōnibus sociorum vtriusq; iuris socii ejusdem collegij primo & post eos socii aule seu collegij annunciaōnis virginis gloriose marie in eadem Vniūsite & post eos alij scolares nostre dioces' cetis paribus iudiō maioris ptis sociorum & non beneficiati beneficiatis ac paupiores diōribus cetis paribus alijs omnibus pferantur. Volumus autem quod nullus curatum optinens beneficium cuiuscumq; valoris seu non curatum vel decanatum ruralem optinens quorum fructus redditus & puentus sex marcarum comūnibus annis verum annum valorem excedunt elegi valeat in socium collegij supradicti.

[186] DE INCEPTURIS IN UTROQ; IURE. R^{ca}.

Item statuimus & ordinamus qđ cum socij legiste seu canoniste dicti nostri collegij volumina seu libros more plegerint consueto & ad statum doctoratus in vno vel altero iure sciencia moribus & etate ydonei maioris ptis sociorum iudiō aut in Vniuersitate illa cōiter reputentur tunc ad recipiendum dicti doctoratus statum infra trienni spacium omnino vel infra breuius tempus ex causa si custos cum maioris ptis sociorum assensu hoc pro honore dicti collegij viderit limitand' sub pena ppetue privaōnis a collegio quam dicti incepturi propter inobedienciam ipso facto incurrant districcius compellantur. Set pmittimus qđ dicto medio tempore possint dicti incepturi in iure ciuili si voluerint audire vel legere iura canonica & in dicta facultate studere continue absq; hoc quod dicto tempore medio ad suscipiend' sacros ordines teneantur. Tales enim incepturos in iure ciuili iura canonica audientes inter legistas volumus illo medio tempore computari. Volumus eciam quod quilibet socius dicti collegij incepturus in sacra pagina iure canōico vel ciuili centum solidos sterlingorum die incepōnis sue de bonis comūnibus collegij recipiat p expensis. Proviso qđ in vna facultate vno anno non incipiat nisi vnus de collegio supradicto.

DE CONTINUAČONE DOCTORUM IN VTROQ; IURE.

Item statuimus & ordinamus quod quilibet doctor dicti collegij tam iuris canonici quam ciuilis continuare teneatur lecturam suam [187] ordinariam in legibus & decretis p vnum annum ad minus & vltra quousq; in sua facultate doctorem regentem in dicta Vniūsite habuerit successorem. Doctor autem dicti collegij cum alium in sua facultate in dicta Vniūsite habuerit successorem dum tamen primum annum suum compleuit cessare de cetero teneatur nisi custos cum [187] consensu maioris ptis sociorum collegij aliud p honore et comodo dicti collegij duxerit ordinand' & nisi scolarium multitudo plures doctores simul requirat in eadem facultate regentes aut nisi doctor successor suus pdictus cum vnicus fuerit in Vniuersitate regens mortuus vel alias ad legend' ppetuo aut verisimiliter longo tempore fuerit impeditus: tunc enim doctorem illum vel alium de collegio qui cessauret lectiones suas resumere si status suus paciatur & continuare volumus quousq; dicta Vniuersitas habuerit alium in dicta facultate regentem vt sic dicta Vniuersitas vnum saltem regentem semper habeat in vtroq; iure canonico & ciuili. Volumus tamen qd in vna facultate numquam sit vnica vice nisi vnicus in dicto collegio doctor regens nisi custos cum assensu maioris partis sociorum aliud p honore dicti collegij duxerit ordinand'. Doctor autem decretorum cum cessauerit ad studend' & audiend' in sacra pagina se transferat indilate & in ea continuet quousq; statum optinuerit doctoratus & vlterius quam diu in dicta aula voluerit remanere si beneficiatus non fuerit aut si beneficij sui condico paciatur & talis in canonistarum numero computetur. Cum autem doctor iuris ciuilis cessauerit liceat sibi p biennij spacium legere ordinarie vel cursorie decretales & interim inter legistas ipsum volumus computari. Ad legend' autem vltra biennium aut ad studend' in iure canonico vt scholaris admitti volumus dum taxat si canonistarum numerus paciatur: alioquin cum vlterius in iure ciuili pficere non possit verisimiliter p honore collegij supdicti [188] nec ad studendum in alia facultate obstante tunc numero deputari a dicto collegio recedere teneatur quousq; locus aliquis vacauerit canoniste ad quem in eleccone facienda socij canoniste dictum doctorem si ipse voluerit omnibus alijs volumus anteferri si beneficiatus non fuerit aut sui beneficij condico paciatur.

DE CANONISTIS AD SACROS ORDINES PMOVENDIS. R^{ca}.

Item statuimus & ordinamus quod exceptis incepturis in iure ciuili jura canonica infra tempus ad incipiend' eisdem limitatum audientibus vt pfertur & doctoribus iuris ciuilibus p biennium proximum post eorum cessaonem legentibus ordinarie vel cursorie decretales quicumq; modo quo pmittitur ad studendum in iure canonico deputatus seu in locum canoniste alterius subrogatus infra anni pximi spacium a die quo admissus fuerit in socium canonistam ad omnes sacros ordines se faciat promoueri et post susceptum sacerdotium se faciat celeriter instrui ad missas celebrand'. Et quod quilibet psbit' socius dicti collegij ad celebrand' instructus missam septimanis

- [188] teneatur singulis quinquies ad minus cessante impedimento legitimo sup quo eorum cuiuslibet oneramus conscienciam celebrare ac in missis suis memoriam nři ac přiis & mřiis necnon pdecessorum & successorum nostrorum facere specialem. Hortamur tamen in dño omnes & singulos psbıtos supdictos qđ iuxta sacrorum canonum instituta sic
- [189] viuant quod cotidie celebrare & cotidie illum scđm panem cotidianum anime fulcimentum corpus dei & hominis bñdictum recipere mereantur vt iuxta verba beati ambrosij canonizata Quisq's cotidie accipiat quod cotidie sibi prosit. Recipiend' tamen pecuniam p modum annualis seruicij vel alio quouis modo ad celebrand' pro animabus alijs eorum cuilibet inđdicimus facultatem.

DE BENEFICIATIS.

Habeant insup socij collegij quinq; seruitores com̄unes iuratos eisdem: videlicet dispensatorem pistorem qui eciam nouerit officium braciandi & coquum in statu officiariorum quorum quilibet de bonis com̄unibus collegij p̄ter porçones p socijs singulariter limitatis recipiet vnam robam vnus & com̄unis secte & decem solidos pro salario annuatim. Item habebunt vnum famulum pistoris focarium in pistrina & alium famulum cocij focarium in coquina quorum vterq; habebit vnam robam de statu garciferi¹ vnus secte & quinque solidos pro stipendijs annuatim p̄ter id qđ socij dicti collegij dictis seruitoribus ex eorum liberalitate
- [196] voluerint forsitan de pprio ministrare. Item vt expense circa victualia collegij vtilius fiant & absq; dispensatoris suspic̄one procedant volumus & ordinamus qđ p quamlibet septimanam vnus dicti collegij socius sit expensarum omnium circa victualia dispositor & ordinator quodq; omnes & singuli socij istud onus singulis septimanis assumere teneantur nisi quis fuerit legē impeditus aliquo impedimento custodis & maioris ptis sociorum iudicio approbando quo casu alius socius in eius locum pro dicta ebdomada subrogetur. Si quis autem socius custos doctor vel alius proprium habere voluerit seruitorem hoc ad expensas proprias sine aliorum incom̄odo fieri pmittimus dum tamen ille seruiens pacificus castus humilis fuerit & quietus.

DE RESIDENCIA & ABSENCIA.

- Item volentes dicti collegij psonas ad continuum studij ex̄cicium excitare statuimus & ordinamus quod nullus socius p̄sertim sine licencia custodis aut eius locum tenentis nec custos p̄sertim absq; consilio & assensu duorum saniorum aut seniorum collegij extra aulam seu hospicium pnoctet. Volumus tamen qđ in licencia danda socijs p custodem & assensu per socios dando custodi non adhibeatur nimia difficultas sed qđ asserenti se sub iuramento collegio p̄stito causam habere raçonabilem absentandi non denegetur absentandi facultas p̄sertim vacaçonum temporibus. Set tunc assignetur absentandi certum tempus iuxta indigenciam eiusdem & qualitatem cause infra qđ redire cessante impedimento legitimo teneatur: Proviso quod medietas sociorum pro tutela aule & honorum eiusdem ac inter eos

Volumus insuper & ordinamus qđ nec p custodem vel locum eius tenentem socio licencia nec custodi p duos seniores consilium & assensus dari possit se in vno anno extra vacaōnum generalium tempora vltra vnius mensis spacium continuum nec discontinuū semel nec diūsis vicibus abscentandi nisi pro negocijs collegij aut alijs pprijs causis necessarijs iudicio & assensu custodis & maioris partis sociorum collegij concorditer approbandis.

DE NUMERO AUGENDO.

Item statuimus & ordinamus quod quandocumq; dictum collegium habuerit ex nostra aut aliorum fidelium largiōne aut eiusdem collegij empōne sufficientem seu habundantem ad hoc excrescenciam reddituum annorum ppetuorum teneatur sociorum p tempore numerum iuxta dictam reddituum annorum ppetuorum excrescenciam ampliare. Sup quo custodis & sociorum qui pro tempore fuerint sub iuramento p̃stito coram dō conscienciam oneramus. Et volumus quod numerus augmentandus fiat de socijs legistis & canonistis alternatim nisi custodi cum assensu & deliberacōe maioris ptis sociorum collegij videretur pro honore & cōmodo collegij pro tempore aliud faciend'.

DE BONIS COLLEGIJ NON ALIENDIS.

[198]

Item statuimus & ordinamus quod bona immobilia dicti collegij siue sint temporalia siue spiritualia nullo modo nec aliquo vnquam tempore alienentur. Et idem statuimus & ordinamus de ppetuis iuribus in corporalibus dicti collegij. Item idem statuimus de libris dicti collegij de p̃senti concessis seu datis ac futuris temporibus concedendis aut dandis collegio supradicto.

DE LIBRIS COLLEGIJ. R'.

NOTE ON DENARIOS PETRI.

Peter Pence.

[353] See a Copy of y^e Union of y^e Two Churches, St Edward's & St John's, p. 57.

Ina King of the West Saxons Founded a College at Rome A.D. 727 for y^e Education of y^e English; and for y^e support of it, he order'd a Penny per annū to be paid at Rome by every Family in his Dominions. This was call'd Romescot, i.e. Tribute of Rome, or Sent to Rome. Afterwards Offa K. of y^e Mercians extended this Tax throughout his Dominions, St Alban's Monastery only being excepted. And because this money was paid at Rome on a Holy-day called St Peter's ad vincula (1st of August) this Tax was call'd Peter-pence instead of Romescot. But in time y^e Popes demanded this as [354] a Tribute due to them as Successors of St Peter. But at last it was abolish'd by K. Hen: 8.

Peter-pence was not, as Polydore & Baronius & others have affirm'd, a Duty paid to y^e Pope as Successor of St Peter, or as an acknowledgment of y^e Papal Supremacy, but a Revenue originally appropriated by Ina, & afterwards by Offa, & confirm'd by their Successors, towards y^e support of y^e English School or College at that time in Rome, wch College is still in being at this day, tho in a much meaner condition than formerly.

(8) WARREN'S NOTE ON TRANSCRIPTION.

- [331] A.D. 1722. I Copied out our College Statutes from y^e original lying now in our Treasury, & Indors'd thus,—“Exemplar Statutorum.”
The 3 Seals still remain to y^e said Exemplar in 3 Tin Boxes. The

1st is That of the Bp̃ of Norwich our Founder, viz. a Bishop Mitred, [331] standing in a posture of Blessing with his Right Hand Lifted up, & his Left Hand holding a Pastoral Staff; over his Head is a Crucifix, & under his feet his own Coat of Arms, viz. a Crescent Ermin within a Bordure Ingrayl'd. Round all are these words, "Sigillū Willelmi "Dei Gra Epi Norwicen." This Seal is a little broken. The Second, viz. y^e middlemost of y^e 3, is Simon Islips, A.Bp̃ of Canterbury; viz. a Bp̃ in a Posture of Blessing, his Right Hand lifted up, & his Left Hand holding a Pastoral Staff; on his Right side France and England Quarter'd; on his Left a Cross fitchee surmounted with a Pall between two Pastoral Stuffs. At his Feet a Coat of Arms, viz. a Cross etc. Round all are these words, "Simonis ...iscopi.....": the rest of the words are broken off. The 3^d Seal is y^e Chancellor's of y^e University; a man sitting in a Chair between two men, all in Academical Habits; Round all are these words "Sigillum.....canta-brigie." The rest of y^e words are broken off.

These original Statutes fm wch I took my Copy, are engross'd on a large skin of Parchment or vellum near 3 Feet long & about 2 Feet Broad.

I have copyed y^e Rubrick in Red Letters, it being so in y^e original.

Almost all the Initial Letters of y^e Items being left out in y^e Original, I have supply'd y^m in my Copy with Red ones. [332]

I have Copyed y^e Statutes according as they are spelt in y^e original, with abbreviations; & having very carefully collated my Copy with y^e Original, I believe it is sufficiently exact.

I Copyed Bp̃ Bateman's Additional Statutes (pp. 51—4) fm y^e Originals now lying in our Treasury together with y^e Exemplar Statutorum in y^e Long Deal Box.

The Literae Foundationis Collegij, wch I have Copyed fm y^e Exemplar Statutorum (p. 27—9), are also in y^e Long Deal Box under y^e Seals of y^e Bp̃ of Ely, Bp̃ of Norwich, & y^e Seal of y^e University.

A.D. 1724. I Copyed y^e Statutes over again (viz. in y^e Old Vellum Book with Green Strings) in as plain & Legible a Hand as conveniently I cou'd, & without the abbreviations; wch Copy may serve for Comon use, as there shall be occasion, but especially at those times of y^e year (viz. Easter & Mich^s Terms) wⁿ The Statutes of y^e College are appointed to be Read intirely over to those of y^e Society y^t shall be then resident.

[332] I Transcrib'd y^e Statutes as they are in y^e foresaid Vellum Book fm my own Copys wch I had before taken fm y^e Originals.

In y^e same Vellum Book are Copies of Simon Dalling's, William Dalling's, John Puregold's, etc., Robert Goodknape's, Bp̃ Nick's Benefactions; wch Copies were taken fm my Copies in this Paper Book by John Bunce Scholar of this College. But Mr Spicer's, A.Bp̃ Parker's, & Dr Eden's Benefactions, as also y^e Divine Service at y^e Comēoration of Founder & Benefactors, were Copyed by me.

THE COLLEGE FABRICK, &C.

THE DIMENSIONS OF IT, &C.

Aug: 5. 1726. I measur'd y^e Site of Trinity Hall with a Chain, [481] thus

From y^e outside of our Porter's Lodge to y^e corner next to y^e River on Clare Hall side 403½ Feet.

Fm thence along y^e Riverside to y^e corner where y^e Date (1569) is 171½ Feet.

Fm thence to y^e corner at our College Stable 203 Feet.

Fm thence along Garret Hostle Lane to y^e corner next to Caius College 316 Feet.

From thence to y^e Corner of Dr Tenison's Chamber Num: 19 157½ Feet.

Fm Dr Tenison's Corner in a straight line to Clare Hall on y^e outside of our Porters Lodge 102 Feet.

THE GREAT COURT.

[17]

The Great Court is in Length from the Hall to the opposite side about 116 Feet. In Breadth from the Chapel to the opposite side about 81 Feet. The Stone-work for a Seat round y^e Fir-Tree in y^e middle of the Court was set up about y^e year 1704. The Fir-Tree set within y^e memory of Dr Boord formerly Fellow of this College. It was cut down June 27. 1739, it being Dead. It was 48 foot High.

THE COURT BEFORE Y^E MASTER'S LODGE.

This Court having a Little Garden in it inclos'd with pales, is from y^e Chapel to y^e Wall next Clare Hall Chapel [—] Feet: from y^e Master's Lodge to y^e opposite side [—] Feet.

THE MASTER'S BACK COURT.

- [17] This Court is from East to West [—] Feet: from North to South, viz. from y^e Master's Long Gallery to the Old Building for y^e Monks of Ely [—] Feet.

The walnut Tree there was planted in Dr Bramston's time by Mr Allen then Fellow.

THE COURT BETWEEN Y^E M^R'S LODGE AND Y^E LIBRARY.

This Court is from the Master's Lodge to the Library [—] Feet; from the Hall to y^e Wall on y^e top of wch is a Walk leading from y^e Master's Long Gallery to y^e Library [—] Feet.

THE BACKSIDE.

The Backside is from the Wall on wch y^e Master passes from y^e Long Gallery (to the Library) to y^e Wall next y^e River [—] Feet: From the middle of y^e Wall between y^e Fellows Garden to y^e opposite Wall next y^e Road leading on upon Garret Hostle Bridge [—].

- [481] The College having undertaken to contribute half of the expence of building the new bridge called Garret Hostle bridge in 1772, an agreement was made with the Corporation that they were to keep it in repair and to allow us to rebuild our Wall in a strait line from the Stables to the South East foot of the bridge, whenever we should think proper. We paid [£]278. See the deed in the Walpole drawer.

- [17] The Lime Trees in the Backside were planted about the year [—].

[18] THE MASTER'S GARDEN.

The Master's Garden is about [—] Feet in length, & about [—] Feet in Breadth. The Summerhouse wch is in it was built [—].

See Loggan's Print of Trinity Hall at y^e Beginning of this Book.

- [364] The Garden wch is there call'd Hortus Magistri is now y^e Fellows Garden. And y^e Masters Garden is that wch is parted from y^e Fellows Garden by a Wall. The Masters Stable is that wch is next to his own Garden. And y^e Fellows Stable that wch is next to the Backside & River.

THE FELLOWS FRUIT GARDEN.

The Fellows Fruit Garden next Garret Hostle Lane is in Length [18] [—] Feet, in Breadth [—] Feet. The Mulberry Tree in it was planted about y^e year 1690 by Mr Allen then Fellow. There was another Mulberry Tree planted at y^e west end of y^e same Garden about Lady Day 1726 by Dr Tenison, Fellow. On the inside of this Garden-Wall wch is next Caius College are these letters T-G held together by a Sash work'd on a Stone. I know not who they stand for.

It appears from Deeds y^t were made in Stephen Gardiner's time, y^t y^e ground between our College Building and Gerrard (or Garret) Hostle Lane was granted to our College by y^e Mayor and Corporation of Cambridge, & by St Michael's (Mychell) House by several pieces, & at sev^l times, in exchange for some pieces of land from Trinity Hall. What is now called y^e Fellows Fruit Garden on y^e north side of y^e College was granted by Mychell House 16 Apr: 36. Hen: 8, for a Red Rose acknowledgm^t. (See Arch: Coll: St Edward's Drawer.)

On a spare leaf at y^e end of The Old Vellum Book [with green strings]¹ (in wch Book I have transcrib'd y^e College Statutes) are these following Memoranda entred (as I take it) in Dr Hervy's own hand-writing, viz:

"Anno Dñi. 1545 y^e grownd on y^e northe side of y^e buildyng of or "College was taken yn & y^e wall builded, wch befor was a laystow."

"A^o Dñi. 1562 y^e west bay window in y^e Hall was sett up."

"A^o Dñi. 1563 the Stable was sett up wher it is. And y^e same "yere y^e chambers & buildyng, ov^r y^e botery & pantrie y^e entrie "into y^e ketchyn & ov^r y^e ketchyn y^e larder & enner botrie was "buylded &c."

"Anno Dñi. 1569 y^e old wall on y^e northe side of or back-syde "was taken down & y^e grownd wch was w^tout or wall taken yn unto "y^e water syde all y^e lengethe from y^e Stable w^t y^e retorn to y^e prive "& y^e new wall sett up, & a new crosse wall sevaryng y^e Stable yard "also made y^e same yere."

The foremention'd Date, viz. 1569 appears still on y^e outside of [19] y^e corner of y^e Wall at y^e water gate next Garret Hostle Bridge, cut in stone thus

1569
9 June

, and over y^e Date a Crescent for y^e Founders arms.

¹ The words in brackets should be omitted.

THE FELLOWS TERRAS GARDEN.

- [19] This Garden is in Length from y^e Wall (joyning y^e Master's Gallery to y^e Library) to y^e outside of y^e opposite Wall y^t is wash'd by y^e River 236 Feet. In Breadth about 106 Feet in y^e middle. On a stone in y^e Wall by y^e Terras-walk on y^e outside next y^e River, is a Crescent ermin cut within a Bordure Ingrayl'd. On another stone near y^e former is a Coat of Arms, viz. A Fess Dauncette between three eagles displayed: (S^r George Newman's Arms) underneath wch are these words: "Ex Labore Immortalitas." Between y^e two stones, "Anno Domini 1619."

Those two stones were taken from y^e old Sum^r House (wch was Built over y^e River) & plac'd in y^e wall where they are at present. The Sum^r house was taken down Anno Dom: 1708. The foundation of it is still to be seen in y^e Water.

The Horse Chestnut Trees by y^e Wall next Clare Hall were set about 1710, except two or three of y^m wch were set some years later.

The Yew Hedges were planted A.D. 1705. Cost $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 16 & 03 & 01\frac{1}{2} \end{smallmatrix}$.

The four Leaden Figures representing y^e Four Seasons were set up on y^e Terras Wall.

The Two Seats on y^e Terras Walk were set up, That next Clare Hall A.D. 1706, & cost $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 10 & 10 & 00 \end{smallmatrix}$; That at y^e other end of y^e Walk A.D. 1708, & cost $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 09 & 10 & 00 \end{smallmatrix}$.

- [314] The Four Figures in y^e Terras-Garden, viz. That with y^e Book and Pen representing Learning; That with Castle, Key and Lion, Cybele; That with Sword and Cap, Liberty; That with Sword and Blindfold, Justice; each Five Foot nine Inches high, on Pedestals 3 foot 6 Inches high, were given to y^e College by Sir Nathanael Lloyd¹. They Cost him Seventy nine Pounds, and were set up in September A.D. 1722².

- [346] Dr Johnson³ gave y^e Brass Dyal Plate in the Fellows Garden. It was fix'd on y^e top of y^e Wall next y^e River April 27. 1726.

¹ It will be noticed that these Figures are distinct from the four leaden Figures [the Seasons] described above. Probably the second set took the place of the first, A.D. 1722. For Lloyd's other benefactions see pp. 71, 90, 91, and Index.

² See accounts in Miscellanea, vol. II. [82].

³ For Dr Johnson, see p. 87.

A.D. 1735. The Wall in y^e Fellows Garden, at y^e Terras-Walk [456]
 next to y^e River, was coped with Portland Stone, w^{ch} cost 18: 00: 00;
 And y^e Sundyal on y^e Wall was new-set; And y^e Meridian drawn with y^e Date signifying when it was done. Thus,

MERIDIAN MDCCXXXV

A.D. [—]. The yew hedges and leaden images were removed and the Garden was converted into a lawn, with a broad gravel walk leading from the entrance near the Master's Gallery to the Terrace. The Shrubs to conceal the old Buildings in the Lodge were planted subsequently¹.

THE OLD BUILDING FOR Y^e MONKS.

This is in Length about 79 Feet and 31 in Breadth fm outside to [20] outside. We take this old Building to have been y^e place (or at least y^t it was some part of it) whither y^e Monks us'd to come from Ely for y^e convenience of studying. It is a very ancient Building standing East & West, & is, so far as y^e length of it reaches, a partition between Clare Hall & this College. It is cover'd with Slates no Chimneys appearing now above y^m. But withinside we still see y^e lower part of a large Chimney in y^e Kitchen; In another room y^e ruines of an Oven. The Stair-Case (for there is but one) consists of great pieces of Timber fasten'd with wooden pins to other pieces scloping underneath. The sides of the Building consist of Clunch, & Rag-stones, & Bricks plaister'd over². There are Three Passages into it. On y^e Ja^{ms} of y^e First next y^e East end are two small Heads of a man & a Woman: on y^e Ja^{ms} of the Last, viz. that next y^e West end, are two Coats of Arms; The First is held by an Angel on his Breast, & is A Crescent within a Bordure Ingrayl'd (our Founder's Arms). The Second is likewise on y^e breast of an Angel, & is Three Mitres two & one, being y^e Episcopal Arms of Norwich. These two Coats I take to be y^e most ancient of any y^t now appear throughout y^e College, perhaps as ancient as fm B^p Bateman's time. They are cut on Clunch stone, & are now almost worn out. It seems to me probable y^t y^e Inside of this Building is y^e same y^t it was wⁿ y^e Monks of Ely came to it before B^p Bateman purchased it; and y^t upon y^e Founding of Trinity Hall y^e Bishop Built y^e outside up to y^e inner part.

² Cole doubts whether brick was used at this early date. MSS., vol. LVIII., p. 21.

- [20] This building betwⁿ the Master's Lodge and Clare Hall was partly destroyed in 1823 when the brick building which now faces the Gateway, and comprises part of the Lodge, and six additional sets of Chambers, *were erected*¹. The rest of it was standing in 1862 when, with the exception of perhaps a cross wall or two, it was removed in the enlargement of the Master's Lodge.

THE MASTER'S LODGE.

- [21] The great wainscotted Room in y^e Master's Lodge above stairs call'd y^e Master's Dining-Room is 28 Foot Long, 18 foot 9 inches Broad, & 11 foot High, wainscotted A.D. 1604. The Master's Long Gallery is 54 Feet 10 inches Long, & 10 Feet 6 inches Broad. As for y^e Arms on y^e Glass windows in y^e Dining-room or Long Gallery, see them Blazon'd p. 21 &c. There are several Pictures in y^e Long Gallery. There is a Picture of a Bishop shav'd, & having a Book with a red cover in his right hand, & a Ring on y^e forefinger of each hand. This I take to be y^e Picture of Stephen Gardiner, Bp of Winchester, & Master of this College. That Print wch Bp Burnet has given us of Stephen Gardiner in his Hist: of Reformat:, was by mistake done from a Picture of Horne, Bp of Winchester: The Purse it seems was added to make y^e Print look y^e more like Gardiner's Picture as 'twas thought; But Horne's Arms still shew y^e mistake. (See Bp Burnet's Hist. Reformat. 3^d vol. In y^e Appendix to 1st and 2nd vol. p. 411). There is an original Picture of Stephen Gardiner at Mr Macro's, a gentleman in Suffolk, and I am told 'tis like that in our Master's Lodge.

There is also in our Master's Gallery The Picture of a Bp with a long white beard, a Cane in his right hand, his left holding a pr of gloves, & resting on a Book with a red cover wch lyes on a green table, near his Head are these letters AE^{te} 84. I take this to be y^e Picture of Cox, Bp of Ely. There are two like pictures of Gardiner and Cox to be seen in y^e Masters Lodge at Trinity College. (On Coxe's AE^{te} 84. 1577. But no date nor age on Bp Gardiner's Picture.)

There is also in our Masters Gallery at Trinity Hall a picture of Ld Keeper Williams with y^e Purse, also one of A.Bp Bancroft, one of A.Bp Abbot, one of Bp Curl, one sd to be of Bp Andrews, & one sd

¹ Completed by 1824, when the Master, Le Blanc, advanced £1,200 at 4½ per cent. to pay the cost of the work. The charge was laid on a repairing fund established in the previous year. Order Book, 6 Jan., 1823, and 6 Jan., 1824: pp. 187, 188. And see p. 92.

to be of Sr Henry Marten : But quære whether y^e two last are so or [21] no ?

There is also in our Masters Gallery A Table of y^e Foundation of [22]
y^e University of Cambridge &c. By Ivory 1672. Also Ivory's Table of y^e Chancellors, Vice-Chancellors, Professors &c. Printed 1675.

Also a Table of y^e Foundation &c. of Trinity Hall.

Table of y^e Arms of y^e Hughes.

Table of the Arms of Sr Thomas Exton Knight, Mr of this College.

Seven Pictures signifying Music, Painting, Architecture, &c.

At y^e coming into y^e Long Gallery, an old Table of y^e Foundation of Trinity Hall : also an old Table of y^e Cycle of y^e Proctors of y^e University : also a large Map of England, by J. Adams. All these things wch I have now mention'd to be in y^e Masters Lodge, I take to belong to y^e Master of Trinity Hall for y^e time being. Also a Picture of Arch-Bp̄ Laud given A.D. 1741.

There are also in the Lodge a portrait of Philip, Earl of Chesterfield (by Hoare) formerly of this College, and one of Chief Justice
Wilmot which was presented to the College by his son Eardley
Wilmot Esquire.

A.D. 1804. This year the Lodge was repaired and greatly improved by the Master Sir W^m Wynne at an expense of near fifteen hundred Pounds: and in 1822 about £1800 was laid out in improvements and alterations.

A.D. 1852. The Lodge was considerably altered and enlarged at the expense of Dr Thomas Charles Geldart, then Master. The room above stairs, formerly the Master's Dining room, was converted into a Drawing room. The "long Gallery" ceased to exist, being for a part of its length thrown into a Study or Library fronting the College Library : the north wall of this apartment being built over the old cloister which itself was converted into Servants' offices. A new Dining room was built at the West End of the Lodge. The architect employed was Mr. Salvin of London, who afterwards built the New Hall of Caius College, and the University Museums and Lecture rooms on the site of the old Botanic Garden.

THE CHAPEL.

The Chapel is in Length withinside from East to West, viz. to [23]
y^e Ante Chapel 30 Feet, in Breadth fm: North to South 18 Feet.
The Ante Chapel from East to West 13 Feet; from North to South 17 Feet.

- [23] The Chapel was probably Built about y^e year 1352; for y^e Bp of Ely's License to Build a Chapel bears Date May 30. 1352. (Archiv: Coll:)¹.

The Stalls for y^e Masters & Fellows (wch Stalls are 24) & y^e wainscot behind them, as also y^e Desks for y^e Master and Fellows, y^e Bench-Seats also & Desks for y^e Scholars were probably set up in Dr Hervy's time. The Stalls of Oak. The Cieling, being Timber work, Pannels & Knobs, is Painted: and there are y^e Founder's Arms, & y^e Arms also of y^e See of Norwich here and there painted on it.

In each of y^e 4 windows of the Chapel is some small matter of Painted Glass; p^tictrly The Founder's Arms & these words,

"Summae Trinitati 1566."

'Tis true indeed y^e Glass y^t had those words on it formerly intire, is now broken in some places, & some of y^e Letters are misplac'd & some lost. The window in the Ante Chapel has no painted Glass in it.

The Arras-Hanging at y^e Altar-piece (being our B. Saviour Betray'd) was put up there in pursuance of Dr Eden's Will².

The Rails inclosing y^e Co^munion Table were set up about A.D. 1685 at y^e charge of Mr Foster. (See Mr Foster among the Benefactors³.)

On the Pulpit (wch stands just without y^e Rails South) lyes a Silk Cushion wch is plac'd upon y^e Presidents Desk for y^e use of y^e Orator, whenever He makes y^e Co^memoration Speech according to Dr Eden's Foundation⁴.

- [24] In the year 1719 the Chapel was in great danger of being Burnt down. Evening Prayer being over on Thursday between 6 and 7 of y^e clock Nov: 12 one of y^e Candles on the North-west side of y^e Chapel happen'd by some means to fall down unextinguish'd under one of the kneeling Hassocks where it lay smouldering till 7 o'clock y^e next morning; by wch time a Hassock or two & some pannels of y^e Wainscot &c. between the Fellows Stalls & Scholars Seats were Burnt. But upon our returning to Chapel in y^e morning by God's Good Providence 'twas quickly extinguished. See a piece of y^e

¹ See p. 60. The date of the Chapel building is uncertain. In William Dalling's Obit, g.z., there is a reference to capella nostra, which carries us back as far as 1502. But the date may be much earlier: see Malden, Trinity Hall, pp. 50, 51. The earliest document relating to the Chapel that survives is a bill for repairs in 1513. Miscellanea, vol. i. [4].

A.D. 1729. Sometime before Midsummer y^e old Wainscot & Stalls [398] &c. in y^e Chapel were begun to be taken down, y^e Stone & brick pavem^t taken up, the Grave design'd for y^e Master in y^e South-east corner of y^e Chapel digg'd & lin'd with brick by his own order, The whole Chapel repair'd & new wainscotted, & pav'd with marble, & beautify'd at y^e charge of y^e Master S^r Nathanael Lloyd¹ out of y^e Thousand Pounds wch he had before given to y^e College, except y^e Picture for y^e Altarpiece in a gilded frame given by Dr Chetwode. As y^e work was going on, Divine Service was perform'd in y^e Hall [399] or Parlour according as either suited with y^e convenience of y^e College, 'till April 16. 1730: but y^e work was not completely finish'd 'till December 1730. Dr Hewke's Gravestone & y^e other to y^e West of it were remov'd into y^e Ante-Chapel: "Walt: Hewk Custos" put on y^e New Little Square marble stone over his grave where he was buried in y^e Chapel; Dr Eden's, Dr Preston's, Dr Cowel's, & Dr King's grave-stones continu'd in their proper places over their respective Bodies; Darnelly's & Moptyd's Brass plates taken fm y^e Wall in y^e Ante-Chapel & fasten'd again to y^e wainscot near y^e places where they had been fix'd before. All y^e windows in y^e Chapel & Ante-chapel alter'd; The painted glass taken away; The Ante-Chapel wainscotted with y^e old wainscot of y^e Chapel & painted; Dr Eden's Monument set again in y^e same place as before near y^e Treasury door, only lower yⁿ before; The old Arras Hanging for y^e Altarpiece taken away, & a Picture of y^e Virgin Mary presenting our Sav^r in y^e Temple set up in its room, given (as before mention'd) by Dr Chetwode Fellow of this College, wch his father formerly y^e Dean of Gloucester had bought with 3 others of y^e same size in Flanders. The Picture is 12 Feet 4 inches deep & about 8 Foot broad. New wainscot all round y^e Chapel. Altar inclos'd with Iron rails painted & fasten'd into y^e stones, but afterwards taken up again & others plac'd there in a different manner. The side-walls & West end of y^e Chapel done with Hard finishing (as 'tis call'd) & Stucco-work. The great Cross-beam taken away. The Cieling wrought curiously in Stucco & work'd into 25 Pannels with Heliotropes &

¹ Sir Nathaniel Lloyd offered the College £500 for an annual payment of £25 "during my life only"..."towards beautifying within and without their chapel according to the manner as I should deem it practicable." The offer was accepted, as was another of a like amount on the same terms in the following year. See Order Book, 2 Jan., 1728 [pp. 66—68], and 21 June, 1729 [p. 69].

[399] Shields for Arms, & Mitres gilded, & more particularly so in that part of y^e cieling wch is over y^e Altar. An Iron-work'd Desk for y^e Bible in wch y^e Scholar of y^e House reads y^e Lessons for y^e Day. Fourteen new Folio Comon Prayer Books. Comunion Table cover'd with blue velvet wch (together with a blue velvet Cushion with Gold Lace) is enrich'd with Gold Fringe & Lace. Two blue velvet cushions [400] with Gold Tassels & Edging for y^e Masters & Presidents Desks. Also Two Blue Silk Damask Curtains for y^e Masters & Presidents Seats. Long blue freeze Cushions for y^e Scholars to kneel on. The old Door passage in y^e Ante-chapel fm y^e Masters Lodge stop'd up, & a new one made in y^e middle fronting y^e Altar.

The Arms on y^e Ceiling, of y^e Founder & fourteen of y^e Benefactors plac'd in this order.

We took these arms at a venture with Sr Nathanael's consent; and for ought we know, Both y^e Two Busbys were of y^e same Family.

The Arms of Sr Nathanael Lloyd our Master & Great Benefactor are carv'd in wood, & set up at y^e West end of y^e Chapel under y^e Window looking into y^e Chapel fm y^e Master's Lodge, with this date on y^m, MDCCXXIX. The Arms are Quarterly, y^e 1st parted per Fess, a Lyon Ramnant, &c. The Crest a Lyon Issuing fm a Coronet.

1729. When y^e Labourers began to take up y^e pavem^t in y^e Chapel about Midsum̄er 1729, it was thought proper y^t they shou'd dig into Dr Hewke's Grave, & also into that under y^e Stone next to Dr Hewke's Grave-stone to y^e West, & also into that in y^e South-east corner of y^e Chapel, over wch was an old stone wch formerly had a Brass plate on it, but wch was lost before my time, (& where y^e Pulpit stood wch is remov'd into y^e Hall) to see if we cou'd make any discovery of any Inscription to inform us of y^e exact time of [402] Dr Hewke's death, or to let us know whose bodies had been buried under y^e other two stones. But we cou'd not make y^e least discovery of any such thing; everything being turn'd to earth, except y^e bones of y^e bodies wch had been buried. We discover'd nothing in y^e least [403] to satisfy that inquiry. We only discover'd y^t a small spring of water had reached Dr Hewke's Grave, & y^t his skeleton (as it lay in y^e earth, there never having been any lining of brick to his grave) was of such a size as made us conclude him to have been a Tall man. We took care y^t y^e bones of all y^e 3 bodies shou'd be cover'd again with all decency & tender regard to y^e memory of our Benefactors. This brings to my mind what I saw about A.D. 1719 in Caius College Chapel. I remember y^t wⁿ they were then repairing & beautifying that Chapel y^e workmen had broke a hole either by accident or design into Dr Caius's Grave wch was a hollow place lin'd with brick on y^e North side of y^e Chapel at a little distance from his Monum^t wch is a mural one. The Lid of y^e Coffin was off when I look'd in with a Candle fix'd in a long cleft stick wch y^e workmen furnish'd me with, & with wch I cou'd survey y^e sepulchre very easily. The sides of y^e Coffin were remaining, thô in a disjoynted & rotten condition. The Body seem'd to have been a very lusty one, & y^e coffin was pretty full of it. The Flesh was of a yellowish black colour, & yielded to y^e least touch of y^e stick & fell to pieces. The eyes were sunk deep into their sockets. A long grey beard much like that wch we see in y^e picture of him, only this was grown very rough by long time; I think it was then about 145 years fm y^e time of his death. I touch'd his beard with y^e stick, & turn'd it a little on one side; It accordingly lay on one side, having lost all manner of elasticity. I therefore brought it back to its right place again. The sight occasion'd in me serious reflections, & I went away with such a regard as I thought due to y^e memory of so considerable a man as Dr Caius had been. [404]

1864—5. The Chapel remained in the same state as it was [24] described by Warren until 1864, when, being found inadequate for the accommodation of the College, the pensioners of which had much increased in numbers, it was enlarged in the following manner. The East Wall which was principally of brick was thrown down, and the old Treasury behind the Altar thrown into the chapel. A depth of about 8 feet was thus gained. In the centre of the E. wall thus destroyed and about ten feet from the ground the remains of a niche were discovered, the tabernacled head whereof in good decorated work was in tolerable preservation and retained traces of gilding and colour. The ancient [24] piscina of about the same period as this niche was brought to light on removing the wainscot on the S. side of the Communion table. It was allowed to remain, being enclosed by a small door in the wainscot. The slabs with brasses, &c. over the graves of Eden, Preston, Cowell and King, were retained in their places, the three latter however being lowered to the level of the pavement of the body of the chapel. They had previously formed part of the pavement of the foot-pace on which the altar stood. The seats were continued eastwards over the former space included by the altar rails.

[472] It being impossible to continue the ceiling of the enlarged Chapel at the same elevation as that erected in 1730, without rendering the garret above Chamber Num. 25 (see as to the alterations in these Chambers infra page 93) quite useless, a flat ceiling to cover the space gained at the East End of the Chapel was formed on the flooring of the Garret. The carved wainscot reredos or altar piece required little alteration to adapt it to the new East wall; the highest point of the pediment having originally reached little more than a foot above the level of the joists of the garret floor. In 1865, the whole of the chapel interior walls were renovated & decorated. The arms & ornaments of the ceiling cleaned, 2 partly re-gilt; the ground of the panels therein was coloured: It had originally been white. A window in the West Wall which communicated with a Chamber in the Master's Lodge was entirely stopped up at the Master's request. A new Altar-cloth was presented by the Rev. Henry Latham M.A., Fellow & Tutor, in substitution for one formerly given by him. A new altar rail in iron & oak with standards for candles was presented by another of the Fellows, Dr C. S. Perceval.

In 1875 the Master & Mrs Geldart offered to replace the plain glass windows with stained glass in designs to be approved by the [473] College. The work was executed with great judgment & taste to the satisfaction of all the Fellows.

In 1876 the Master & Mrs Geldart anxious to still further restore the Chapel offered to be at the expense of covering the West Wall with a fresco and to ornament the North & South Walls of the body of the Chapel with colour and to replace a portion of the fading part at the East end with suitable texts. The work was commenced in the Long Vacation and was completed about the middle of the Mich^{as} Term. The general effect proved extremely good and the Governing body ordered a letter of thanks to be written conveying to the Master & Mrs Geldart their high appreciation of the liberality displayed. This letter was signed by all the Fellows (except Mr Ebdon who is at the Cape of Good Hope). In reply to this letter the following [473] was received & it was ordered that the Bursar "make an entry in a "suitable place" of the whole business. The letter rec^d was as follows.

"Trinity Hall Lodge, Christmas Day 1876. The Master of "Trinity Hall & Mrs Charles Geldart are much gratified to learn "from a letter received to-day from the Fellows of the College that "the renovation & decoration of the Chapel (which with their permission "they have had the pleasure to effect) meet with such full approbation "& they hope that what they have done will long remain as a proof "of their affection for the College, & the Church & her Services."

The Master did not see the work, as though he died nearly a year after it was finished, he was for more than a year before his death entirely confined to his room. Dr Geldart (died on Sept. 17th) was buried at the South West Corner of the Ante-Chap^l on the 21st Sept^r 1877.

THE CHAPEL IN 1745.

[Cole]

[May 14 1745. The Chapel of the College is a great and elegant small Room, more like a Chapel of a Nobleman's Family, than of a Society. It has 2 Windows on each side, and wainscoted ab^t 10 foot high on both sides; above y^e Wainscoat quite to y^e Roof is stucho, adorn'd with Festoons and y^e Crescent of y^e College Arms. The East End is wainscoted quite to y^e top with a Pediment, making a very handsome Altar Peice, in y^e middle of which is framed in a very large Picture, over y^e Altar, of our Lady's offering our Saviour in y^e Temple to y^e Priest. The Altar is rais'd one Step, rail'd in with Iron Rails, and covered with an elegant Covering of blew Velvet, laced and fring'd with Gold, with Cushions of y^e same. The Cushions for y^e Master and President at these Stalls are y^e same, and y^e Curtains of blew silk Damask; & y^e whole Furniture of the Chapel correspondent, being very handsome. Above y^e Ante-chapel and over the Master and President's Stalls, is a Chamber for y^e use of y^e Master's Family wth a Sash Window in y^e middle to look into y^e Chapel, and fronting y^e Altar; just below it, and above y^e Door coming into y^e Chapel, between y^e Master's and President's Stalls is fixed a Coat of Arms carved with the date in a Label under them. 1729. MDCC.XXIX in gold Figures. The Arms belong to their late Master and Benefactor S^r Nathaniel Lloyd. This Chapel is paved throughout with white Marble, and y^e stalls all round it are of y^e neatest workmanship of Norway oak. The whole Chapel was within these 20 [years] rebuilt. The Roof of it is arch'd with Stucho and adorn'd with 15 Coats of Arms, of Founder and Benefactors and the 3 Immediately over y^e Altar are, as to y^e shield work, all gold, y^e Rest only gilt in part: the 5 in y^e middle of y^e Roof frm y^e Altar to y^e W. end of y^e Chapel, belong to 5 Bishops, adorn'd with Mitres, that of y^e Founder being all gilt, y^e others only in part.]

INSCRIPTIONS IN THE CHAPEL.

1ST INSCRIPTION.

"Sancta trinitas, unus Deus, miserere nobis.

"Of your Charete pray for the Sowle of Master Walter Hewke

"Doctor of Canō."

"Gloria Fama Scolis Laus Artes cetera mundi

"Vana nimis valeant: spes michi sola Jhesus.

"Suscipe Walterū bone Jhesu in fine Dierum,

"Qui obiit anno Dñi. milto quingentesio x^o."

[29] This Inscription is cut on Brass wch is tack'd to a large Gravestone about y^e middle of y^e Chapel. The end of y^e Stone is about 11 feet distant from y^e East Wall. The Stone is 9 feet 3 inches Long, & 4 feet 7 inches Broad. On y^e middle of y^e Stone is y^e Figure (as I suppose) of Dr Hewke (in a Cope embroider'd with y^e Figures of our Saviour & His 12 Apostles upon it) in Brass, between 4 & 5 feet long. The Head of y^e Drs Figure is now off; Probably it was taken off in y^e time of Cromwell's Rebellion, as y^e Heads of y^e Saints on Painted Glass us'd to be by people of those times in abhorrence, as they pretended, of Superstition. Over y^e print of y^e Drs Head, on a Slip of Brass are those words,—“Of yo^{wre} Charete pray for the Sowle of “Master Walter Hewke Doctor of Canōl.” Over this Inscription on another piece of Brass are these words, “Sancta trinitas, unus Deus, “miserere nobis.” At y^e Drs Feet are those four Lines “Gloria, Fama, “Scholis &c.” all on Brass. It appears by y^e Drs Will y^t He had his Gravestone by Him before He dyed¹; Probably therefore He had those words of the Inscription (“Qui obiit anno &c.”) cut designedly with a Blank as we see at the end of it, wch Blank was to have been fill'd up after his Death, tho it seems that has never been done yet: for 'tis plain y^t y^e year 1510 cou'd not be the year of the Drs Death, since His Will bears Date several years after, viz. anno 1517.

[348] John Bunce an Ingenious Scholar of this College has drawn out Dr Hewke's Figure as it is in Brass on y^e Grave Stone in y^e Chapel; see y^e next page to this. He has also drawn out the Monument wch was set up for Dr Eden in y^e Chapel. See in y^e page next to this².

 "et Hujus Collegii olim Dignissimus Praefectus," are on a Stone at y^e Treasury Door; The other words, viz. "Suspice Lector ac venerare
 "&c." are cut on marble & placed in y^e Wall over y^e other Inscription, wch was y^e Place where Dr Eden desir'd his funeral monument might [348] be. Dr Eden's Monument was not erected 'till about y^e year 1708.
 The best account y^t I am able to give of that matter is this: upon the death of Dr Eden it was doubted whether the College or y^e Executor shou'd be at y^e charge of a Monum^t (see a letter of Ald.
 Bunce (Dr Eden's Exor.) in Miscellanea, vol. IV. [128]), and the publick troubles then coming on so fast, nothing was done. After the Restoration, when things were again settled, one wou'd think y^t the Doctors Will might have been fulfill'd as to this particular; but whatever was the reason of it, it was still neglected. And I remember, when I was Undergraduate, upon hearing y^e words of Dr Eden's Will read at y^e Comemoration of our Founder and Benefactors, in wch Will the Dr expresses his earnest desire of having a monument set up to his memory, it was a matter of wonder amongst us every year, why it was not done. But in y^e Bursarship of Mr Dickins matters were so manag'd y^t the Master & Fellows made a Contribution among themselves towards y^e erecting a monument, wch was accordingly set up about y^e year 1708. [348]

The next Gravestone, being about 7 Feet 5 Inches Long, & 3 Feet 7 Inches Broad, West to Dr Hewke's, has a Brass Plate fasten'd to it with y^e figure of a man in an Academical Habit cut on it; but y^e Inscription wch belonged to it is now lost, so y^t I can say no more of it. [30]

The Next Gravestone South of Dr King's had a piece of Brass on it formerly, as appears by y^e print of it yet remaining: but w^t y^e Inscription was, or who it belong'd to, I know not.

In y^e year 1643 one William Dowsing with many other suchlike fellows stark mad with their zeal against Popery, went about y^e University & Town & County of Cambridge pulling down & demolishing Pictures, Inscriptions &c, in y^e Chapels & Parish-Churches. This Fellow wrote a Journal of this their expedition, wch Journal Dr Zachary Grey has Publish'd in his Appendix to "The Schismatics delineated from Authentic Vouchers." Lond. 1739. In this Journal p. 51 are these words, viz, [460]

"1643, (8) Trinity Hall, Dec. 2.

"Mr Culiard, Fellow. Orata [for Orate] pro anima, on a Grave-stone.

And in page 52.

"1643, January 1. (6).

"Edwards Parish, we diged up the Steps, & brake down 40 Pictures, & took of 10 superstitious Inscriptions."

Dr PRESTON'S.

On one of y^e Corners of y^e Gravestone at y^e Feet in Lead: Quarterly, The 1st Two Barrs, a Canton charg'd with a Cinquefoil, [30]

[30] a Crescent for Difference. The 2nd Three Mulletts 2 and 1. The 3rd as y^e 2nd. The 4th as y^e 1st. On the other corner of y^e same Stone at y^e Feet, Fusilee, on a Chief 3 Lions rampant.

There is on y^e same Stone another Coat in Brass at one of y^e upper Corners of it, & y^e print of another Coat at y^e other Corner, but so much hid under y^e Rails of y^e Comunion Table, y^t I cannot tell what to make of y^m.

Dr COWELL'S.

[31] The Founder's Arms in Brass are tack'd down to Dr Cowell's Grave Stone at one of y^e upper Corners, & at y^e other Dr Cowell's own Arms viz. Three Cheveronels &c. as Blazon'd p. 16. XIX.

Dr EDEN'S.

Dr Eden's Arms are on y^e Monument erected for Him near y^e Treasury Door. See y^m blazoned p. 16. XXI.

Dr KING'S.

On Dr King's Grave Stone are y^e College Arms impal'd with his own, cut in y^e Stone, viz. a Lion Rampant as Blazon'd p. 16. XXII.

Mr DARNELLY'S IN Y^e ANTE-CHAPEL.

Just above y^e Inscription in Brass, viz. Three Flowers de Lis 2 and 1, on a Chief a Lion Issuant. For y^e Crest, a Lions Head Crown'd and Wing'd.

THE TREASURY.

[32] The Treasury is a little Room behind y^e Altar and under y^e Chamber Num: 25¹. It is wainscotted with Deal, & has Shelves &c.; for writings, a large wooden Chest fortify'd with Iron. This is called y^e Hutch, & is for y^e keeping y^e College Seals, Plate, writings belonging to such and such of our Estates y^e names of wch are set upon y^e Drawers in y^e Hutch in wch y^e respective writings are repositd. There is also a Strong Iron Chest for y^e keeping y^e College Stock &c.

On this Iron Chest is this date 1598, The Founders Arms & two other Escutcheons painted, each of wch Bears Quarterly, the 1st Gules, 2 Barrs Or, a Chief indented of y^e 2nd. The Second, Gyrony of 12, Or and Azure. The 3^d as y^e 2nd, the 4th as y^e 1st, being Mr Hare's Arms.

In the Statute De Sigillo et Arca Com̄un. are these words— [32]

“Item Statuimus & Ordinamus qđ dictum Collegium nostrum
“habeat vnum Sigillum Com̄une, & vnam arcam com̄unem, magnam “& fortem, in qua dictum Sigillum, Indenturas, munimenta, jocalia, “& Thesaurum dicti Collegij volumus conseruari sub tribus clauibus “diversae fabricae, quarum vnam penes vnum, & altera penes alium, “& tertia penes tertium remaneat Socios, ad hoc per maiorem partem
“Sociorum annis singulis nouiter eligendos¹.”

The Treasury had ceased to be used as a muniment room for many years since Warren's time, the writings of the College being removed to presses at the end of the Library. At some time after this removal, the original entrance by a low pointed arched doorway in the north side of the end wall of the Chapel was bricked up. In altering the Chapel in 1864 (see pp. 75—6) this ancient doorway in the wall then pulled down was disclosed. It had been screened by a door in the wainscot reredos or altar piece constructed to give access to the Treasury. A corresponding door will be observed on the south side of the reredos. This was merely for uniformity, and concealed a cupboard for brushes, etc. On blocking the ancient doorway a new access to the Treasury had been made in the south wall of the passage between the two courts. The Treasury was then used as a wine cellar, and for some years prior to 1864 as a plate closet. See Chambers, p. 91.

THE HALL.

The Hall is in Length from y^e Door going in to y^e Master's Lodge, [33] to y^e Skreens [—] Foot. In Breadth at the narrowest [—] Foot.

For y^e time when y^e Bow window was set up, see p. 65.

For y^e Blazoning y^e Coats of Arms y^t are Painted on y^e Glass etc.
in y^e Hall, see pp. 21—3.

The Piece of Hanging at y^e upper end of y^e Hall (being a Roman Triumph &c.) was Hung up there in pursuance of Dr Eden's Will.
The Wainscot behind it was put up about y^e year 1646. James Bunce Esq^r paid [£]10. ^s00. ^d00 towards it. (See James Bunce among Benefact^{rs}.)

By the Coat of Arms Dated 1566 & fixt to y^e musick Gallery over y^e Skreens, I take y^e sd Gallery & Skreens to have been set up in that year, viz. 1566.

[346] Mr William Revell formerly Fellow of this College gave a Bond [£] 200 : ^s 00 : ^d 00. to be paid after his death to y^e College, for y^e Cieling y^e upper end of y^e Dining place in y^e Hall with Good Wainscott, & for two Wainscott doors at y^e Skreens. Dated Oct: 18, 1595. See y^e old Lease Book in y^e Treasury, Fol: 57.

Mr Thorowgood gave a Legacy for two Portal Doors amongst other things. [See Mr Thorowgood amongst y^e Benefactors¹. Also see y^e old Lease Book in y^e Treasury, Fol. 68.] Over each pair of [33] Doors are these words,

“BENEDICTS THOROWGOOD LL BACCH HVIVS COLLEGII NVPER SOCIVS POSVIT ANO SALTS CIOIOXCIX.”

I have been inform'd y^t one Margaret Wynn Glaz'd y^e windows in y^e Hall, or at least part of them; and y^t Her name was in several places at y^e bottom of y^m. But y^e Glass has been so broken y^t there are now but few remains of y^e words that were there formerly. However I am informed y^t y^e words were these:

“Margareta Uxor Mag^{ri} Wynn Mercatorē ad Stapul^m.”

I suppose these words & y^e Arms of the Staplers' Company Blazon'd
 p. 22 had respect to one another.

There is this Mark  in two places of y^e Hall windows painted on y^e Glass. I take it to have been y^e mark of some Merchant y^t had been a Benefactor to this Hall. There are many such like Marks to be seen, on y^e Corporation Pictures of men y^t had been Merchants, at Lynn, & elsewhere.

[358] Upon sashing y^e Chamber Num: 8. (A.D. 1727) y^e Picture of our Saviours Head (as I take it to be) on painted glass was found in one of y^e Windows there². It was shortly after set up in y^e Bow window in y^e Hall: As was also y^e Portrait of a Bp with his Pastoral Staff mention'd p. 22. Also y^e mark mention'd above was set up in y^e same Bow window. Also y^e Two Letters EM each Insign'd with a Crown (wch perhaps may have some relation to Simon Sudbury: See his Arms at y^e beginning of y^e Account of him in A.Bp Parker's Book De Antiquit Britan: Ecclesiae. edit: Hanoviae 1605) were set up in y^e same Bow window under A.Bp Parker's Arms. The Portrait of y^e
 Bishop was probably design'd for Bp Bateman our Founder.

[January 12 1742. As y^e old Hall of this College is now going to [Cole] be demolished to make Room for one of a more elegant Structure ; the present one being a very gloomy and dark, tho' a very strong and durable one, and y^e College having lately had a very considerable Benefaction of between 3 and 4,000 pounds left them for that Purpose by their late Master, S^r Nathaniel Lloyd ; I was willing to preserve y^e memory of y^e Arms in the Windows of y^e same as they are now standing, and which in all probability y^e Society will hardly think worth preserving or putting up again : together with whatever else was of Antiquity in the same.

To begin then, this is one of y^e most ancient Buildings at present remaining in y^e University, being y^e same as it was at y^e Foundation of y^e College, and has 3 double Windows on each side, one of w^{ch} at y^e upper end on y^e W. side is a Bow Window, in which stands y^e Beaufet, with y^e Desk for y^e Chapter in Latin while at dinner and Supper. This Hall is divided from y^e Butteries by a Passage, and fr^m the last by a Screen of Wood with 2 Doors in it, y^e one fronting y^e Pantry, y^e other y^e Buttery, and over it a Gallery. The whole is roofed with old oak Beams, very black and dismal fr y^e Charcoal w^{ch} is burnt in y^e middle of y^e Hall and over it in y^e middle of y^e Roof was an old awkward kind of Cupulo to let out y^e Smoak. The Fellows Table stands on an Eminence at y^e upper or S. end of y^e Hall, with a Door on y^e E. side to go into y^e Master's Lodge ; The Back of y^e Table of y^e Fellows had y^e Arms of y^e College painted pretty high against y^e Wall, and below hung a large peice of Tapestry. The Scholars Tables are on both sides of y^e Hall, which is paved with stone. Over each of the Portals of y^e Screen is this Inscription in large characters : Benedict : Thorowgood L.L. Bacch./ hujus Collejii nuper/ Socius posuit Año Salts/ CIO.IO.XC.IX.¹]

The interior of the Hall was entirely changed (A.D. 1742). The [471] old wainscott was taken down and a new one carried quite round with a Gallery over the Skreens for music ; the chimney altered and adorned with marble, sash windows introduced above the wainscotting on each side instead of y^e former, the ceiling and side walls elegantly wrought in hard finishing and stucco, the hanging at the upper end taken away and an enriched [baldachin]² with a Portrait of Sir Nath. [472] Lloyd were set up in its stead. The expence was defrayed out....

THE PARLOUR OR COMBINATION ROOM.

- [34] In Length 26 Feet: in Breadth 21 Feet & $\frac{1}{2}$: In Height 11 Feet. For the time when this was built see p. 65.
- [148] See in Dr Fuller's History of Cambridge &c. a Copy of a Faculty granted by A.Bp Arundel 1405 for increasing our College Comons. Each Fellow by that might have 16^d p^r week for Comons (p. 49). And for y^e design of uniting Clare Hall and Trinity Hall p. 126¹.
- [34] A.D. 1730 the old wainscot in y^e Parlour was taken down, & new wainscot put up in y^e room of it, a passage made fm y^e Parlour into y^e Library, y^e Chimney alter'd & adorn'd with Marble, three Sashes set up instead of y^e 3 former windows, y^e Cieling and y^e floor done anew, also 2 new Tables of Mohogany wood, & 17 Chairs placed instead of y^e old Tables & Forms. All this was done at y^e expence, & was y^e voluntary gift, of Dr John Chetwode to the College.

The Floor of Norway Oak: The Chimney piece & y^e College Arms over it in Marble: Higher still y^e Arms of y^e Founder Mitred carv'd in wood: Furniture for y^e Chimney: A Bofett: Mohogany window seats: A Marble Table for y^e side-board on a Mohogany Stand: Brass Locks &c. The Foot of y^e Stair case leading up to y^e Parlour new done with Stone at y^e Passage: The Stair-case new lined with Deal wainscot painted: New Stairs of Oak: A Venetian window at y^e Stairs Head. All finished A.D. 1731. And accordingly there is a Date on a Label carv'd in wood over y^e Chimney piece, MDCCXXXI. All given by Dr Chetwode & cost above Four Hundred Pounds. Dr Chetwode's Coat of Arms carv'd in wood was set up in y^e Parlour opposite to y^e Founder's & College Arms at y^e Charge of y^e College A.D. 1734. Cost Five Pounds ten shillings. See Dr Chetwode's Arms Blazon'd, [among Benefactors]².

THE LIBRARY.

- [35] The Library withinside is from East to West 65 Foot, from North to South 20 Foot.
- It was Built about y^e latter end of Queen Elizabeth's time.
- For y^e Coats of Arms painted on y^e Glass windows and on one of y^e Classes see p. 23.

¹ Fuller, History of the University of Cambridge, III. 21—2, pp. 76—7: VII. 27—9, p. 180. London: 1840.

² The total cost was £419. 16s. 3d. See Miscellanea, vol. III. [197]; and for details, ibid. [198—203]; for his Arms, ibid. [192].

There are in y^e Library 15 Classes Mark'd A. B. C. &c. beside the [35] Abacus marked Q. & beside y^e Shelves lately put up upon y^e Abacus for y^e Placing of Mr Holt's Books (being about 180 in number) wch He Left to y^e College. (See Mr Holt amongst y^e Benefactors.)

According to y^e account wch I this day took of y^e Number of our Library-Books from y^e Classical Catalogues &c. reckoning y^e Pamphlets and 27 M.S.S. with y^e rest there are in y^e whole Number 2338. June 6th 1721.

Many volumes have been annually purchased, and a large and valuable Donation made by the R. H. Sir W^m Wynne. See Cat. Bibl. Wynn.

For those persons y^t were particular Benefactors to y^e Library see Founder and Benefactors.

Cross & Little Box belonging to y^e Library. The Cross is of [365] Wood Twelve Inches & an half high, Botony, on three Grees, inlaid with Mother of Pearl. The Box belonging to it is a small one of wood also y^e Lid inlaid with Mother of Pearl. In y^e Box are eighteen little Cells glaz'd over, containing small Stones &c. brought fm particular places in Jerusalem & elsewhere in y^e Holy Land remarkable for something or other relating to our B. Saviour, as

Those words written on y^e inside of y^e Lid.

This Cross & Little Box were brought from Tyre or Sydon, I think about 1721 or 1722, & given to Dr Johnson then Fellow of this College, by a Seaman. And upon Dr Johnson's death His Niece M^{rs} Head gave y^m both to our College Library.

[39] MEMORANDA CONCERNING THE CHAMBERS.

The Chamber Num: 1 has y^e Arms of y^e Stuarts in it over y^e Chimney. See y^e Arms blazon'd p. 25. I believe those Arms were put up there above a hundred years ago.

Chamber Num: 3. I have been told y^t this Chamber was wainscotted by D^r King or M^r Glisson. Perhaps it might have been by Both. For D^r King's and M^r Glisson's Admissions see y^e College Register of M^{rs} and Fellows.

Chamber Num: 5. This Chamber was sash'd by D^r Dickins, 1725. He afterwards Wainscotted it, & sett up a Marble Chimney piece etc. These things he has given to y^e College. See y^e Book of Orders¹.

Chamber Num: 6. D^r Monson who has this Chamber at present sash'd it towards y^e Court, & made some other alterations in it about 1725. M^r Page (a Fellow Co^moner who had it before) wainscotted y^e Little room next to y^e Fellows' garden.

Chamber Num: 7. This Chamber was wainscotted time out of mind, perhaps in Queen Elizabeth's time. The Founder's Arms on y^e Cieling. The Room sash'd in y^e year 1725 by D^r Andrew. The Little room next to y^e Fellows' garden wainscotted and sash'd many years before by D^r Brookbank, I think about 1702 or 1703.

Chamber Num: 8. Sash'd toward y^e Court 1727. Pd for y^e outside work [£]15. 01. 06 [[£]15. 11s. 6d. in account] by S^r Nath^l Lloyd².

Chamber Num: 9. Wainscotted time out of mind, perhaps by D^r Eden who probably kept in this Chamber. I find his name written with his own Hand with a Diamond on y^e Glass windows in two places in y^e Little room wch I make my Bedchamber next to y^e [40] Fellows' Garden. The Three windows of this Chamber next to y^e Court sash'd 1727. Pd for y^e outside work by S^r Nathan^l Lloyd [£]14. 19. 0².

The Cellar in y^e Coal-hole under y^e Stair Case dug 1720.—Stair Case lin'd 1723.

Chamber Num: 10. Sash'd towards y^e Court 1727². It was Wainscotted many years before, I think about y^e year 1710.

¹ On 2 July, 1729, Francis Dickens gave to the College the sum of £95. 7s. 10d. spent on fitting up Chamber No. 3; the annual rent or profit thereof to be added as an additional article to the minor dividend; and on 20 July, 1730, a further sum of £35. 19s. laid out in the same way. Order Book, pp. 70, 71.

² For the various payments made by Sir Nathaniel Lloyd for work of this kind in 1727, see Miscellanea, vol. III. [161—4]. The total included in these accounts is £71. 1s.

Chamber Num: 11. Sash'd by Dr Johnson 1721. Wainscotted [40] afterward by Dr Peck. Dr Johnson had wainscotted part before.

Chamber Num: 12. Sash'd 1727¹. Wainscotted some years before. Cellar dug in y^e Coal-hole about 1721.

Chamber Num: 13. Wainscotted time out of mind, perhaps in Queen Elizabeth's time. Dr Nichols made alterations in y^e Wainscottedg &c. about 1729. The Picture of St Christopher on a Pane of Glass.

Chamber Num: 17. Sash'd & Wainscotted, Chimney fitted up with Marble &c., about 1722. A new Chimney built in y^e Garret 1730.

Chamber Num: 25. This was y^e old Library, as we have it by Tradition.

Chamber Num: 26. I have been told y^t this was Dr Hervy's Chamber, & fitted up by him.

Chamber Num: 28. Pd for sashing this Chamber by S^r Nath^l Lloyd ^{£ s d} 05. 05. 00².

The Drain in our College Court next to y^e Chamber Num: 10 [481] was clean'd & new Timber put down: A new Drain was also made next to y^e stair-case leading up to y^e Parlour. Also y^e Two old Drains near y^e Treasury & y^e Chamber Num: 24 were clean'd A.D. 1728.

In y^e same years (viz. 1729 & 1730) y^e outside of our Chapel [404] fronting y^e North was plaister'd with Hard-finishing, as was also that whole side of y^e Court. The Chamber windows of it were sash'd. The Garret windows were alter'd, & a Parapet wall built y^e whole length. The opposite side of y^e Court (viz. y^e North side fronting y^e South) had been done a year or two before much in y^e same manner; but some of y^e Chamber windows had been sash'd at different times before. The Founders arms were set up cut in Stone. The Sun Dial on y^e Chimney new done with y^e Motto wch had been on it before, viz. Fumus & Vmbra. For y^e sashing of y^e Windows see Memorand concerning y^e Chambers p. 90.

The great Court of the College and the East and West Fronts [472] were cased with stone and the windows altered & sashed (A.D. 1742): this also was done out of the legacy left by S^r Nath. Lloyd. See bills & receipts, Miscellanea, vol. v. [128].

² See note 2, p. 90.

[40] Warren notices none of the Garret Chambers. He also omits the Chamber abovestairs South of his Num. 27 and the Chamber below it; yet these rooms existed in his time. See Loggan's engraving, whence it appears that in 1688 a larger Gateway existed, the space of [41] which is now occupied by the Porter's Lodge. The extent of the archway indeed may clearly enough be traced in the walls. The old porter's lodge may possibly have been in these omitted chambers: however Warren also omits the chamber on the Ground floor N. of the Gateway Entrance, which since 1848 at all events has been occupied by the Porter. See the plan of the College in the Library, where this building next Clare Hall is called the Porter's Lodge.

In 1823 6 new sets of Chambers were added, facing the Gateway and uniform with the portion of the Master's Lodge South W. of the Chapel, which portion was then rebuilt and cost £1290. 17. 4. See Acc^{ts} in Library¹.

A fire broke out early in the morning of February [20], 1852, in or near the chamber No. 17, which so much damaged the E. side of the Great Court as to render it necessary to rebuild it. This was done at the expense of £—², an additional storey being added, while the ground and first floor were restored almost exactly, as to the West elevation. The round stable-like windows which had lighted the ground floor bedrooms looking to the Street were modified.

Chambers Nos. 1 & 2 under the Library were slightly altered and much repaired in 1863, mainly at the expense of the Rev. H. Latham, M.A. A new Door-case in stone and outer door were inserted in place of a mean entrance under a round headed brick arch of the eighteenth century.

The enlargement of the Chapel in 1864 caused an alteration in the Chamber next thereto, Num. 25 of Warren, and the Garret above it. See p. 75—6. The W. wall of this chamber, being the E. wall of the Chapel, was pulled down and with it the fireplaces and chimneys of these chambers. The E. wall of the old Treasury, which was but of one storey, was raised to the level of the main walls of the Court, and chimneys carried up in it, for the two chambers thus reduced in size. The bedroom of the chamber No. 25, which had been East of the keeping-room and looked into the Court, was thrown into the keeping-room: and a new bedroom made with a window broken thro the S. wall, and looking into the smaller court. On executing this work it appeared that this S. wall had at some early time been pierced in [41] one if not two places for windows, the jambs of which were visible. The Garret was altered also to suit the position of the new chimney breast carried upon the new wall.

¹ For Sir Thomas Le Blanc's loan to meet the cost of rebuilding, see p. 68.

² The cost was about £4,800. A sum of £2,375 was received for Insurance; the Goodhehere fund advanced the balance. Order Book, 29 Dec., 1852, p. 246.

THE DRAIN FROM KING'S COLLEGE.

In y^e year 1494 an end was put to a suit y^t had been depending for some time between Trinity Hall & King's College before y^e Vice-Chancell^r concerning y^e Drain or water-course, running from King's College under Trinity Hall. The matter was put to a Reference, & 'twas agreed, y^t Kings College should keep y^e Drain Clean &c. & y^t Trinity Hall shou'd suffer y^e water to pass under the College¹.

¹ The plate at Trinity Hall, as elsewhere, was treated with something more than freedom; and college officers seem to have sold it or to have had it converted at their discretion. If, as Cole says, with special reference to a piece of plate at King's College, "it had the Fortune to escape the fiery Trial of Fanaticism," it was not always safe from "the Brutality of the College Bursar." [Cole MSS., vol. LVIII., p. 31]. So we find that on 21st February, 1624, plate weighing 134 oz. 3 dwts. was sold to Sir Thomas Vyner, the goldsmith, for £33. 13s. 9d., and that £34. 12s. 6d. was spent in replacing it. Miscellanea, vol. IV. [87]. The account does not specify what was sacrificed; but the following list, of about the same date, probably gives the details:—

A pott with 2 eares & coll. arms.

A 2 eared pott: F. Moundford.

E. Moundford's pott.

2 eared pott: Trin. H.

Hacon's bowls.

A round hooped tunne: coll. arms.

Tunne: coll. arms

& others.

Miscellanea, vol. IV. [89].

Edmund Moundford [or Muntford] was a Fellow, 1572—91. It is possible that both entries may refer to the same person.

D^r George Bramston, Fellow 1672—96, sold plate, account undated, to the value of £74. 1s. 6d.; and bought at the same time to the amount of £73. 7s. 3d. A similar transaction is recorded on 8th April, 1704: plate sold, £53. 13s.; plate bought, £52. This account also refers to a sale of candlesticks. Miscellanea, vol. II. [61], [62].

[46] D^r EDWARD DAVENANT'S TANKARD.

S^T EDWARD'S: ARMS &c.

There have been many Inscriptions on Brass-plates wch were [71] formerly tack'd down to y^e Grave Stones in y^e Church, as appears by y^e Prints of those Brass-plates still remaining (in number 22). But y^e Brass-plates y^mselves have been long since gone.

The College Arms Impal'd with Simon Dalling's, formerly Master of this College, were put on y^e two Doors of y^e two Pews in y^e Chancel belonging to y^e Master & Fellows of Trinity Hall, Oct: 3. 1723.

The College Arms (inaccurate) in y^e Vestry, also on y^e Glass window over y^e Altar: also another Coat on y^e window over y^e Altar, viz. Or, a Fess Sable charg'd with three Billets of y^e Field, between two Cheverons of y^e Second. (M^{rs} Robson's.)

ST EDWARD'S BELLS.

A Ring of Six Bells, y^e Ten^r weighing about Ten Hund w^t. [72]

On the Treble are these words, CHRISTOPHER GRAYE [344]
MADE ME 1669

On the Second, IN TIMPHANIS TAVDATE DOMINVM OO
1669

On the Third, IN TIMPHANIS TAVDATE DOMINVM OO
1669

On the Fourth, STEFANUS TONNI ME FECIT W L 1576
DE BVRI SANCTI EDMONDI

On the Fifth, SANCTA ANNA ORA PRO NOBIS

On the Tenor, NON CLAMOR SED AMOR CANTAT IN AVRE DEI 1622.

Upon measuring y^e Sixth Bell in St Edward's Steeple, & the 5th and 6th Bells in Great St Maries Steeple in Camb^r I take St Edwards
6th to weigh something more yⁿ St Maries 5th but less yⁿ St Maries
6th. Now the exact weight of y^e Ten New Bells in St Maries Tower is as follows, reckoning 112 to the Hundred,

	cc.	q.	lb.
1 st	06	= 00	= 08	[345]
2 nd	06	= 02	= 06
3 rd	07	= 01	= 22
4 th	07	= 03	= 22
5 th	09	= 00	= 05
6 th	11	= 00	= 05
7 th	14	= 00	= 17
8 th	15	= 02	= 02
9 th	21	= 00	= 27
10 th	26	= 00	= 19
Total 125 = 00 = 21

I take therefore St Edward's 6th Bell to weigh near Ten Hundred w^t.

[345] It seems y^e Charge of Casting y^e Ten Bells at St Maries at $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \end{smallmatrix}$ 5:12:00 per Hundred weight amounted to $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \end{smallmatrix}$ 701:01:00.

Before y^e Casting of y^e Ten New Bells at St Maries (wch I think was in y^e year 1723) there was a bad Ring of Eight, The weight of wch was as follows,

	cc. Qu ^{trs} lb.
1 st	03 = 2 = 24
2 nd	04 = 1 = 25
3 rd	04 = 3 = 26
4 th	06 = 3 = 07
5 th	07 = 0 = 10
6 th	06 = 3 = 03
7 th	14 = 0 = 01
8 th	18 = 2 = 00
Total	66 = 1 = 12

KING'S COLLEGE GREAT BELLS.

[469] In y^e late Provosts (Dr Snape's) time, the Five Great Bells (most, if not all of y^m being crack'd) were taken down from their old Decay'd Bellfry & plac'd in y^e Ante-Chapel, where they continue still (A.D. 1743). I don't know what their weight is; but the Tenor [470] or Largest has been reckon'd to weigh about Seventy Hundred weight; but Phelps the Bell-founder told me, He thought it did not weigh near so much. On y^e First or Treble are these words,

"In multis annis resonet Campana Johannis."

The Arms of France & England Quarter'd, with J.D: for John Dogget, who was Provost of King's College 1500, when it was new-cast.

The Second has no Inscription:

On the Third, "Ave Maria Gratia Plena."

On the Fourth, "Per Atria cantabo laudes tuas Domine

"Laudibus celebrabo nomen tuum sanctum."

On the Fifth, or Tenor, "Trinitate Sacra fiat Hec Campana beata."

EDWARD THE CONFESSOR'S HEAD.

[346] In the North Isle there is a Head on y^e Wall Crown'd. I take it to be Edward y^e Confessor's Head. The Crown answers well enough to y^e account given of it by Mr Selden in the 3^d volume of his works: edit. London 1726. p. 265. Titles of Honour. Selden's words are these: "Edward y^e Confessor in some of his Coins hath an ordinary [346] "Crown of gold rais'd into Flowers de Lis." There is another Head on y^e wall in y^e south Isle of y^e Chancel, with a great wreath or fillet on it, but without a Crown: I don't know who to think this was for.

There is a House standing in Trumpington Street Cambř, & in [421] St Edward's Parish, on y^e East side of Trumpington Street, & it is y^e last House in St Edward's Parish towards y^e North. This House is Inhabited by Thomas Driver a Joyner, & is y^e Property of Mr Kerrich late Fellow of Benet College. In y^e Chamber-window of this House next y^e Street, are Two Escutcheons with Arms painted on y^e Glass. 1st Escutcheon. Quarterly, y^e 1st & 4th azure, a Fess between two Lyons (or Leopards) heads cabosh'd in chief, & one in Base, Or. The 2nd & 3rd Field a Lyon Rampant with two Tayls, Or; a Chief wavy Gules. The 2nd Q^r has been broken & mended again with a piece of a Crown, Or. The Second Escutcheon has eight Coats; the 1st of wch is y^e same with y^e 1st of y^e 1st Escutcheon. The 2nd is y^e same with y^e 3^d of y^e 1st Escutcheon. The 3^d is France, viz. Azure, 3 Flowers de Lis, Or. The 4th is England, viz. Gules, 3 Lyons passant, guardant, Or. The 5th, I suppose, has been broken & mended again with white glass. The 6th is y^e same with y^e 1st of y^e 1st Escutcheon; only y^e Chief broken & mended again with white glass. The 7th England again; only y^e Chief broken & mended again with other painted glass. The 8th I [422] suppose has been broken, & mended again with white glass.

On y^e outside of this House next to Trumpington Street just under y^e foremention'd chamber window is y^e representation of an Human head crown'd, & with a Long beard between two Angels carv'd in wood in relievo. Under this at y^e bottom of y^e House is y^e representation of a Dragon or a Fiend, or Devil with Bats wings & a Long Serpentine tayl carv'd also in wood in relievo.

The wideth of y^e Front of Drivers House towards Trumpington Street is 18 feet, 8 inches & an half. It has exercis'd y^e thoughts of many a curious man in y^e University to find out what Driver's House was design'd for. I once thought y^t y^e Carv'd Crown'd Head under y^e Chamber window was design'd to represent y^e Head of Edward y^e Confessor, as I thought That did wch is like it in Stone in y^e North-side Isle of St Edward's Chancel: And there seem'd to me to be sufficient grounds for such a thought, because St Edward's Church has comonly been taken to be St Edward y^e Confessor's Church. But, it seems, y^e St Edward of our Church is St Edward y^e Martyr, as appears from our Masters Book of y^e Statutes of Trinity Hall [422] (see in that part of y^e Book about Mr Goodknape's Fellowship : the words there are Stⁱ Edwardi Martyris). And if so, then y^e Long Beard will not suit Stⁱ Edward y^e Martyr who was but about 18 years old when he was kill'd, viz. A.D. 979 ; whereas it wou'd have suited Edward y^e Confessor well enough, had it been design'd for him.

I am persuaded therefore now y^t y^e Two Crown'd Heads, with Beards, were originally design'd for y^e representation of y^e First Person in y^e Blessed Trinity according to y^e old Popish unwarrantable [423] custom. And I think it probable y^t Driver's House was once call'd Domus Dei (there were several such Houses call'd by that name formerly in Cambridge) and that it was afterwards a sort of Gild-Hall. The Gilds were Fraternities or Sodalities either for y^e promotion of Religion, or sometimes Mechanical Arts. These Gilds sometimes got y^e King's Charter for their Protection & encouragement. They were frequent in y^e times of y^e Anglo-Saxons [see Mr Hearne's Appendix to y^e Preface of his Book publish'd Oxf: 1730, wch Book contains Tho: Caius's Vindiciae Antiq Acad: Oxon, p. 76 & 77 of his Appendix]. What I now say of this House, I ground upon an Extract communicated to me by Mr Blomfield late of Caius College. Whence he had this extract I know not ; It is as follows.

"In Parochia S^ci E^dri.

"Domus dei olim domus Studenciū

"Postea fuit Dom^o Gilde Sa' E^dri in

"Canteb^r."

See some acc^t of Gilds in Mr Peck's Antiquities of Stanford L. 12. p. 18, &c.

I find y^e following words in Mr Baker's Preface to The Funeral Sermon of Margaret Countess of Richmond &c. London 1708. p. 12 "William Bingham First Founder of Gods House, near y^e place "where Kings College Old Buildings now stand."

But I take this Gods House to have been a different one from that mention'd in y^e abovesd extract ; and by what Mr Baker himself has told me, I take y^e very Building where y^e Fellows of Kings College now dwell, next to Clare Hall & Trinity Hall, to have been it.

THE PERAMBULATION OF THE PARISH.

[447] The Perambulation of Stⁱ Edward's Parish is perform'd once in Three years. May 23. 1734 being Ascension-Day, we went y^e Bounds of our Parish. We began at y^e 3 Tuns, & set our Parish (Mark) over y^e Kitchen-door, then street door (Mark) Then Mr Whiskin's House

(Mark). Then we pass'd on by y^e Peasemarket hill to Nevile [447] Dawney's Wall (Mark). Then thrô Slaughterhouse Lane to Holidays House (Mark) Then thrô ye Garden between y^e Wall & y^e Ditch to y^e outside of y^e Door near Dr Perse's Alms houses (Mark) Then by y^e Alms houses thrô Freeschool Lane to a House at y^e back of M^r Mortlock's house where we set a mark as usual, but we see no necessity for it. Then to y^e corner of M^r Mortlock's Shop (Mark) Then thrô S^t Edwards Lane & along Trumpington Street to Wilkinson y^e Painters House (Mark) Then cross y^e street to y^e Mitre (Mark) Then thrô y^e Mitre to y^e Back-gate (mark) Then to y^e White Horse back gate (Mark) Then to y^e corner of y^e Black-bull back gate (Mark) Then y^e Inside of S^t Cath: Hall back gate (Mark) Then pass'd by y^e Hall into y^e other Court, Staircase (Mark) Then thrô y^e Gate, & on y^e outside of Cath: Hall over ag^t Queens College Garden (Mark) Then to y^e Provost of Kings College his Garden [448] outside corner (Mark) Then Inside of Provosts Garden (Mark) Then at y^e bottom of y^e Provosts garden (Mark) Then on y^e outside of y^e Wall next y^e River (Mark) Then out of y^e Garden into Hampson's Lane & near y^e River (Mark) Then we shou'd have gone thrô y^e old Brewhouse (but 'twas shut) & within Kings College Chapel yard (Mark) Then Kings College Bridge (Mark) Then Blue Post by Green Dicks Spring (old mark) Then Kings College back gate (Mark) Then Clare Hall back gate (Mark) Then corner of Garret Hostle Bridge (wch is now rebuilding) to Trinity Hall back gate (Mark) Then to Trinity Hall Stable gate (Mark) Then corner of Garret Hostle Lane near Caius College (Mark) Then Trinity Hall Foregate (Mark) Then Corner of Kings College back Cynder House near Caius College's Porta Honoris (Mark) Then Kings College Foregate (Mark) Then thrô y^e Provost of Kings Lodge to M^r Thurlbourn's old Shop (Mark) Then cross Trumpington Street to M^r Snagg's door (Mark) Then thrô M^r Snagg's House, his Back door (Mark) Just over ag^t this last mark is a Stone in S^t Edward's Churchyard-Wall. I am inclin'd to think y^t that Stone was plac'd there in y^e Wall as a mark for y^e Bounds of our Parish. From thence to y^e Three Tuns thrô y^e back door to y^e mark over y^e Kitchen door, f^m whence we began our Perambulation about two Hours before.

N.B. One Bottle of White Wine given us at y^e Tuns and one Bottle of White Wine given us at y^e Mitre. Ale & bread & cheese given by y^e Minister of S^t Edwards at y^e Bench in our College Backside.

- [449] Meñ To be given by y^e Minister Twelve Halfpenny Loaves, Six pennyworth of Cheshire Cheese, Seven Quarts & a Half of Ale in y^e Great Stone Bottle for y^e people in general, & a Tankard of Ale for each Churchwarden.

THE FREE SCHOOL.

- [72] Dr. Stephen Perse's Will bears date Sept: 27. 1615. He order'd a Convenient House to be Built, & to be us'd for a Free Gramar School, with one Lodging Chamber for y^e Master, & another for y^e Usher: The Master to be A.M. The Usher A.B. at least. One Hundred Scholars born in Cambridge, Barnwell, Chesterton, Trumington, to be Taught Free & no more. Six Tenements of one Room apiece to be Built for six sev^l Poor Almsfolks, Aged, Single & Unmarried, of y^e age of 40 years apiece at least, out of y^e Parishes of St Edward and St Michael in Cambridge, or in default of a competent number there, of the Parish of St Benet, To be plac'd there by the D^{rs} Executors during their Life, & afterwards by his Supervisors fm time to time.
- To y^e Schoolmaster $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 40 & 00 & 00 \end{smallmatrix}$ p^r añ. To y^e Usher $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 20 & 00 & 00 \end{smallmatrix}$ p^r añ. To each of y^e 6 Almsfolks $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 04 & 00 & 00 \end{smallmatrix}$ p^r añ. To each of y^e Almsfolks 12 pence on y^e Day of his Funeral, or else y^e Day after.
- [398] In Mr Buck's House in Free School Lane in y^e Dining room are Perse's Arms over y^e Chimney-piece on y^e Wainscot, viz. Sable, a Cheveron between 3 Dragons Heads eras'd Ermin. The same Arms at y^e entrance into y^e Little Courts before y^e Free School & y^e Alms-houses. A Crescent for Difference.

NOTES ON THE ESTATES.

[The substance of the following notes has been taken mainly from "*Scalae ad
 "Cameram Bursarii adaptatae*" "A New pair of Steps to the Bursar's Room," compiled by J. H. Hall, Bursar 1808.]

ALLINGTON'S RENT CHARGE: Dr. Harvey by will, 1584, gave the Angel Inn, Newmarket, to his nephew Robert Harvey, the bequest being charged with an obligation to provide a specified amount of charcoal yearly for the use of the College, or in default, with a payment of £3. In 1639 it appears as Sir Gyles Allington's rent charge; in 1730 as the Duke of Somerset's; in 1762 as Lord Granby's; in 1786 as the Duke of Rutland's. For the details of Harvey's will, see pp. 259, 260.

BRADBURY MERE: A close now part of the Mutford's Estate. It first appears in the accounts for the year 1602, at a rent of 2s., which was afterwards raised to 6/8. Now known as Puckeridge Mead.

BURES: Estate bought by the College in 1646 for £540, of which £504 was Dr. Eden's legacy (in addition to the gift of the Fordham farm). It was then at a rent of £30.

CAMBRIDGE TENEMENTS: See Hewke's will pp. 237 fol.; Simon Dalling, pp. 227—30; John Puregold, pp. 232—4; Robert Goodknappe, pp. 234 fol.; and Dr. Cowell, p. 276; with notes below on "The Hand and Sword," and "The Three Archers," p. 150. The tenement described as "Ray vers. le Dolphin," p. 144, is the house at the corner of Jesus Lane.

CHALGRAVE: Bought by Dr. Harvey about 2 & 3 P. & M. It was a tithe estate previous to the year 1796, when an inclosure took place, and allotments were made to the College of 253 acres, 4 roods, 3 poles, in Chalgrave and 79 acres, 4 roods, 3 poles in Wingfield. On the Wingfield allotment there was a barn (the old tithe barn) with other buildings. The old Bull Inn was bought for a farmhouse for Chalgrave at a cost of £800.

CHELMSFORD: First appears in the accounts of 1596, as "Diversorium vocat: Le Boars Head cum terris ejusdem," at a rent of £20. In 1632 it is called "Le Boars Head nunc le Kings Head." Sold in Feb. 1807 for £2,510.

CHESTERTON [Le Hand]: An estate of 80 acres with a tenement, given by Dr. Harvey in 1562.

CHESTERTON [Paris]: 2 meadows and 50 acres of arable land and sheep walk. See license of Mortmain, 21st Eliz. [1579].

COTTON HALL: Dr. Harvey by will, 1584, p. 260, gave to the College the manor of Cotton Hall with other lands, to be sold and others bought, or to be held if the law would allow ; charging the bequest with payments of £8 a year for the repair of the causeway made by him from Paper Mills to Quy, and of £3 yearly to the poor of Bishops Stortford and Littlebury respectively. Hall [Scale p. 83] says that the estate consisted of 60 acres called Cotton Lands and of the Manor of Cotton Hall. This estate, the history of which is singularly obscure, is now represented by a small allotment in Ditton parish, 4 acres in Teversham, and about 39 acres in Barnwell fields.

COWLINGE : The Rectory was bought in 1352 by Bishop Bateman for £200 of one Shardelowe, and appropriated to Trinity Hall. For Grove's Pension see below.

DAVID'S SPRINGS : A close of about 10 acres in Braughin (Herts), formerly leased by itself, but now comprised in lease of Quinbury. See p. 150.

DRAKES ENTRY : [also Draxesentre.] See Willis & Clark, Arch. Hist. of Camb. vol. i. p. 211, and Malden, Trinity Hall, pp. 28 & 31. And see, among benefactors, Petrus de Bitterling, p. 223: He gave "2 messuages and 7 pieces" of ground, one of the messuages being called Drakes Entry." The house is said to have been so called after John Drax a former owner. But where was it? Hall says in the parish of St. John Millstrete; and that it was one of several houses pulled down to make room for King's College and its chapel. [Hall: Scale, p. 75.] Malden, following Willis & Clark, places it on the other side of the College, where the north-east corner of the chief court now is. But in either case, the property described as Drakes Entry in the accounts of 1715 cannot be the same as the house and land referred to above. Hall states that in the accounts of 1589 there appear lands described as "terrae in Cambridge Westfield"; that in 1674 a lease of them was granted to Richardson, in which they are described as "once in the occupation of John Drake"; and that in the accounts of 1676 they are entered as "Terrae in Camb," with the addition of "vocat: Drakes Entry," and so continue. The lands were exchanged in 1804 for an allotment—7 acres, 1 rd., in St. Giles's parish.

EXNING : Bought by Dr. Eden and the Fellows of the College in 1635 for £370. It was then let at £20. Acreage 43 acres, 1 rd., 34 poles.

FORDHAM : (1) Manor farm, or Feltons, bought by the College 6th Elizabeth [1564] for £640.

FORDHAM : (2) Bishop's Barn; 80 acres. Given by Dr. Eden in his lifetime by deed dated 8 Jan. 1633. Bought for £504. Let at a rent of £28.

FORDHAM : (3) Serjeants. A tenement appearing in the accounts of 1587. First called Sargeants in 1598. Sold in 1815 to Mrs Dobbitts for £375.

FULBOURN : Appears in the accounts of 1587, but not in the Declaratio status Collegii, 37th Hen. 8., 1546. Rent £10. 73 acres.

GROVE'S PENSION. A Clause in Cowling Lease granted to Francis Dickens Esq. The Lease bears date Jan : 20. 1732.

"And also a Pension or Portion of Tythes of y^e yearly rent by y^e Particulars [461] "thereof of six shillings & eight pence, sometime belonging or appertaining as "part & parcel of y^e Lands & Possessions of y^e College of Stoak in y^e said County "of Suffolk now Dissolved (wch Pension or Portion of Tythes was purchased & "redeemed of Benedict Grove of Thurlston in y^e said County of Suffolk Gent. by "Robert Turner Edward Catcher John Blumfield & Christopher Wyvel Fellows of [461] "y^e said College or Hall of y^e Holy & Undivided Trinity) as by an Indenture "bearing date y^e 2nd day of February in y^e four & fourtieth year of y^e Reign of our "late Queen Elizabeth made between y^e said Benedict Grove & Robert Skinner on "y^e one part & y^e said Robert Turner Edward Catcher John Blumfield & Christopher "Wyvel on y^e other part more at large it doth & may appear."

HAND & SWORD: A tenement in St. Michael's parish, Cambridge, first appearing in 1610; then described as "The Bull's Head," afterwards as "The "Hand & Sword." Sold in 1800 to Caius College.

LONG STANTON [Phipers]: A close of 1 acre, 3 rds., 20 poles and 14 acres, 2 rds., 10 poles of common field land. Probably so called from the tenant.

MOULTON: Formerly three distinct estates: (1) bought by the College in the reign of Henry VIth of one Adeham; known as "Adams," or "Adams & Reeves," part of it having been bought of Reeves by Adams shortly before the sale to the College: (2) bought by Dr. Harvey in 5th Eliz. [1563], known first as "Leachs," and as Fletchers after 1598: (3) bought by Dr. Harvey in 17th Eliz. [1575]; known as Rumbelows.

MUTFORDS: Estate bought by Bishop Nicke in 13th of Hen. 8. [1522], including in all 503 acres, 3 rds., 31 poles. Formerly let in three parts: (1) "The "site of the Manor of Mutfords, together with a Toft called Turks and all lands "belonging"; (2) "Turks Wood" and several other woods, containing 58 acres, 2 rds.; (3) a croft called Bradbury Mere: see note, p. 148.

NEWMARKET: The Red Lion Inn-house, garden, croft, and about six acres of pasture, with nine acres of land in Wood-Ditton. First appears in the accounts for 1589 at a rent of £4. Sold in 1800 to the Duke of Queensbury.

NEWNHAM CROFT: Not mentioned in the Declaratio Status, though it appears in the accounts of 1587. Said to have been given by Goodknape, but of this there is no evidence. Originally consisted of lands lying in the open fields of Grantchester, subsequently enclosed; date of first enclosure unknown.

QUINBURY: Estate bought by Bishop Nicke in 7th Hen. 8 [1516], including a farm house, 40 acres, 1 rd., 27 p. of enclosed pasture, 70 acres, 1 rd., 38 p. of enclosed arable, and 115 a., 2 rd., 10 p. of open field land. See also David's Springs, now called Davies Wood: p. 149, note.

STUKELEY [HOSPITAL]: given to the College by Simon Dalling about 1443. Estate consists of a Spital house and a close of 4 acres, and another Spital house and a close of 2 acres.

STUKELEY [FARM]: same date (?): 7½ acres of enclosure, 4 acres of meadow in Bidwell Moor and 2 acres in Great Meadow, with 32 acres of field land.

THREE ARCHERS: A tenement in St. Andrew's parish Cambridge: probably the house in Preachers Street, which first appears in the accounts of 1600. Sold in 1801 to Mr. Haggerston.

TRIPLOW [CROUCHMANS]: Formerly the property of the Crouchmans (about 1330) from whom it passed through the Wincelows and Huntynghons to Mordaunt who in 29th Hen. 8 conveyed it to Johnson and Taylor. They may have acted as trustees for the College, but there is no conveyance from them. It appears in the Declaratio Status, 37 Hen. 8, p. 332.

TRUMPINGTON : appears in the accounts of 1587, but not in the Declaratio Status. A tenement with 3 roods of arable land and 1 rood, 20 poles of pasture was bought by the College 34th Eliz.

WALPOLE : Dr. William Mouse by will dated 30 May, 1586, after other bequests gave the residue to Robert Hare, for charitable uses according to his discretion. To the residue, which amounted to about £1,000, Mr. Hare added £600, and with it bought the estate at Walpole (8 August, 1599), which he conveyed to the Master (Dr. Cowell) and the Fellows and Scholars of the College for the repair of the roads in the neighbourhood of Cambridge, "et praecipue viae ducentis inter villam Camb. & villam Barkeway." The estate consisted of 208 acres of land without buildings, and was supposed to carry manorial rights ; but this claim was disallowed by an award of 21 August, 1800.

WETHERSFIELD : For the advowson see p. 114. Henry Pelsant, Vicar, by will, 1677, gave to the College his house and its contents on condition that they should be leased to the Vicar for the time being at six pounds per annum ; of which sum £4 was to be paid to the College Chest, and the remainder divided among the Master and others. For his will, &c., see pp. 287—8.

legal matters, was taken from King's College to succeed Gardiner as Master of Trinity Hall. He was afterwards nominated by the King as President of Magdalen College, Oxford, Dr Oglethorp being ordered to resign that office. Oglethorp at first refused to resign, but gave way under pressure. The Fellows of Magdalen refused to elect Haddon; nor did they comply with the royal mandate until they had received two angry letters from the King. [Strype, Eccle. Mem., II. 2, pp. 361, 529, 530, 531; and Newcourt, Repert. Lond., vol. I., p. 444.] Mowse succeeded Haddon at Cambridge: "Dr Mowse recommended to Trinity "Hall in Cambridge to be their Master." July 20, 1552. From the Council Book [Warren, p. 483; and Baker, Harl. MSS., vol. IX., p. 375]. Fuller adds that after Mary's accession Mowse was ejected and Gardiner restored. [Op. cit., VII. 44: p. 187.] Strype [Cranmer, 401] states that on Gardiner's death, Mowse who had been put out as a Protestant, "having "complicd with the Romish religion, became Master there again."

¹ For a letter addressed to the Lord Treasurer, recommending Preston's election, see Baker, Harl. MSS., vol. IX., p. 129. Preston in a letter addressed to the same, August 1585, describes the state of the College: "There are stoare of other abuses, concerning "chapell, hall, scholastical exercises, want of a minister, defects in statute, debts." Debt is "desperate to be remedied": creditors are clamorous: "a small company of Fellows and "Fellow commoners do owe the College 300^{li} four-score and odd pounds," and the College owes the town 248^{li} 17^s. Ibid., p. 130.

² The following documents are contained in Miscellanea, vol. I.: (a) Letter from the Fellows of Trinity Hall to Lord Holland, Chancellor of Cambridge, 19th August 1645, requesting him to appoint John Selden to the Mastership of Trinity Hall, vacant by the death of Dr Eden [18]. (b) Order from the Parliament to remove the restriction imposed upon the Fellows to elect a Master in favour of J. Selden, if he will accept; if not, generally. Dated 15th October 1645: signed H. Elsing, Clericus Parl. Dom. Comm. [19]. (c) Summons to Dr King before the Committee for the University of Cambridge [20]. (d) Petition of the Fellows of Trinity Hall to the Parliament for leave to elect Dr King Master, Selden having renounced, [21].

[471] Upon the death of D^r Ridlington, D^r Marriott the Master, having assumed the right of fixing the time for a new Election, the Fellows in his absence proceeded, before the day appointed by him, to Elect D^r Gregory who was accordingly admitted by Francis Simpson the Senior Fellow in College, there being no Locum Tenens. An application was in consequence made to the Court of K.B. by D^r Marriott for an information in the nature of a Quo Warranto against D^r Gregory to shew by what authority he claimed to be Fellow of Trinity Hall. In the application it was stated that the Election took place before the time appointed by the Master, and without any previous notice being given to him, that he ought to have been waited for as his presence was of necessity required at every Election, that the time limited by the statutes for the Fellows to proceed to Election had expired, and that D^r Gregory had never been admitted by the said Master or his Deputy commissioned for that purpose. But upon the whole merits of the case L^d Mansfield C. J. was clearly of opinion that D^r Gregory was duly chosen according to the Statutes and that he was properly admitted. See the M.S.S. copies of the Proceedings in the Library. The case is also reported in a note in 4 T.R. pag. 240 note & pag. 244.

JOHN VICKERS.

[471] Mr Wollaston having vacated his Fellowship in August 1793 Mr Wrangham a member of the House, formerly a scholar de minori forma, and Mr Vickers fellow of Queens College were candidates for the vacant Fellowship. Mr Vickers was elected, upon which a suit was instituted against the College by Mr Wrangham. See Vesey Juñ. Vol. 2. [2 Ves. & Bear 609.] The Briefs and other Papers are preserved in the Library.

[Note inserted in margin.] I have placed William Warren in Dr Hewke's Series of Fellows, tho it does not appear by the Scrutiny Paper of Election Dated Sept: 3. 1712, that He was Chosen into the Fellowship of any Particular Founder. But by a Paper wch the late Mr Thomas Baker of St John's College, Camb, gave me, I find Two or Three of the Predecessors in Queen Elizabeth's time placed on Dr Hewke's Foundation. But what Authority Mr Baker's Paper was of, I know not.

(5) SIMON OF SUDBURY.

[305]

Simon de Sudbury¹ while He was Chancell^r of Sarum was Executor to Bp̄ Bateman. He certifies y^e Pope of y^e Founding of our College &c. and prays y^e Pope to confirm y^e Appropriations of Brīmīngham, Cowling, Bryston, Kymberly, Stalham & Woodalling. The Pope Grants a Cōmission to y^e Bps of Winton, Rochester, & y^e Abbot of Westminster: They Issue out a Citation, & recite y^e Pope's Cōmission. Dat: London, July 20. 1362. (Archiv: Colt. Miscellan: Vol. I. [87]. Wallpool Paper.)

Simon de Sudbury was barbarously Murder'd by y^e Mob on Towerhill in Rich^d y^e 2nd's time, viz. June 14. 1381. When they had Beheaded Him in a Cruel manner, & had carryed his Head about y^e Streets of y^e City in triumph, they set it up upon London Bridge. But upon y^e Suppression of the Rebellion his Head was carryed together with his Body to be Buried in y^e Cathedral Church at Canterbury. This is according to Godwin's account of Arch-Bp̄ Sudbury in his Book De Praesulibus Angliae, and it appears by His Will y^t He desir'd to be Buried at Canterbury; and accordingly there is his monument in y^e Cathedral still remaining (Battely's Antiquities of Canterbury). But notwithstanding this y^e people at Sudbury in Suffolk shew a Grave Stone in St Gregories Church there (y^t had formerly Brass plates on it but now nothing but y^e prints of them remaining without any Inscription) under wch they say Arch-Bp̄ Sudbury was Buried. They also shew a Head in y^e same Church wch they say was y^e very Head of Simon Sudbury. I saw y^e Head July 24. 1721. The Skin of it is in great measure still remaining & looks like parchment. There is also one Ear, & one Eye, & y^e nose & y^e Cheeks are almost intire still. The Teeth are gone, & all y^e Hair; But y^e muscles under y^e Lower Jaw in y^e Neck are still there, & are soft & dry like Touch-wood. The Vertebrae of y^e Neck appear to have been cut thrō with violence, & shew manifest tokens of y^e Axe. The whole Head is very Dry & undoubtedly very old; But y^e Different accounts before given make it doubtfull whether 'twas Simon Sudbury's or no. [306]

April 12. 1733 I was again at Sudbury. I found Simon Sudbury's Head (as 'tis call'd) put into a hole in y^e Wall in y^e Vestry, & fenc'd in with small Iron Bars. It is not so perfect now, as it was wⁿ I saw it before. The Stone in y^e Church under wch y^e people of Sudbury

- [432] fancy y^e A.Bþ to have been buried is about $\overset{f}{11} : \overset{inches}{4}$ Long, & $\overset{f.}{5} : \overset{i.}{10}$ Broad. On one side of the Gateway to his Little College next to St Gregorie's Church-yard, I saw a Talbot passant within a Bordure Ingrayl'd; and on y^e other side y^e Archiepiscopal Arms of Cantebury.

- [375] June 12. 1729. The Road leading from y^e South-west Buttress of great St Maries Steeple Cambridge, by y^e Rose Inn, Shoemaker Row, N.W. Corner of Sidney College, Jesus Lane, & so on to about Two furlongs beyond Qui Church, was measur'd with a Chain, & found to be five miles. A Small Stone was set up at each mile's end. The four first Stones were those y^t had been set on y^e Road side leading to Barkway¹. Pd for measuring y^e Road to Qui $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 0 & 3 & 0 \end{smallmatrix}$. Pd Woodward for Carrying & setting up y^e Stones $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 6 & 3 & 0 \end{smallmatrix}$ —Tot: $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 06 & 06 & 00 \end{smallmatrix}$.

D^{rs} CO^mONS.

- [426] It appears by an Indenture Dated May 28. 1650 y^t certain Co^missioners by virtue of Two pretended Acts of Parliament, did in consideration of $\begin{smallmatrix} \text{£} & \text{s} & \text{d} \\ 234 & 00 & 00 \end{smallmatrix}$ Grant D^{rs} Co^mons to Roger Clavell & Robert Thomas, their executors & Assignes, for y^e term of 66 years, & one half year, six weeks & five days, & after y^e Determination of y^e said Term, to y^e Master, Fellows & Scholars of Trinity Hall & their successors for ever.

See the original in our Treasury, D^{rs} Co^mons Drawer.

MILESTONES ON THE ROAD TO BARKWAY.

Memorandums concerning y^e Mile-Stones set up on the Right- [356] hand side of y^e Road leading from Cambridge to Barkway.

July 2. 1725. I took two men along with me, & with a Chain of 66 feet in Length we measur'd five miles from the Southwest Buttress of Great S^t Maries Church Steeple in Cambridge towards Barkway.

Oct: 20. 1725. The first five Mile-Stones were set up.

April 29. 1726. We measur'd in y^e same manner five miles farther towards Barkway.

June 25. 1726. The Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, & Tenth Mile-Stones, & also y^e Stone directing y^e Road to Royston were set up.

² See pp. 273—4.

³ Now in Miscellanea, vol. II. [86].

[356] May 2. 1727. We measur'd in y^e same manner Six miles farther. The Sixteenth mile from Great St Maries Church in Cambridge ends at y^e Sign of y^e Angel in Barkway. (Now the Wheat Sheaf.)

June 15. 1727. The Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, & Fifteenth Mile-Stones were set up.

N.B. It is exactly Fifteen Miles from Great St Maries Steeple to y^e place where y^e Fifteenth Stone stands; and every Stone stands in [357] y^e true place where each mile ends as near as we cou'd make y^m, except y^e Tenth Stone wch stands at y^e end of a Balk Thirteen feet nearer to Barkway yⁿ its true place.

The Fifth, Tenth, & Fifteenth, are Large Stones about Six foot high, each having Trinity Hall Arms cut on it. The rest are small ones having only y^e figures of their respective miles cut on y^m—thus. I. II. III. IIII. VI. VII. VIII. IX. XI. XII. XIII. XIV. But on y^e 5th are these words, See Woodward's Receipts in Miscellan. vol. III. [24] and [26].

April 25. 1728 (being y^e Day on wch King George y^e Second [359] visited our University) the 1st Mile-Stone being above 8 foot high, was set up in y^e place of y^e small one wch had been erected in y^e year 1725. The Sixteenth Mile-Stone was set up at Barkway May 29. 1728 y^e anniversary of King Charles y^e Second's Birth & Restauration. The first of these cost $\overset{\text{£}}{\underset{\text{s}}{\underset{\text{d}}{5:8:0}}}$, The other at Barkway (Seven foot High) cost $\overset{\text{£}}{\underset{\text{s}}{\underset{\text{d}}{6:0:0}}}$. Both were paid for May 31. 1728 [360] out of Dr Mouse's & Mr Hare's Causey-money. The Arms of y^e former are cut on y^e first Stone Impal'd with Trinity Hall. (See Dr Mouse's Arms Blazon'd p. 15). Mr Hare's Arms are cut on y^e Sixteenth Stone next to Trinity Hall Arms. (See Mr Hare's Arms Blazon'd p. 82). On y^e First Stone these words in Capitals "I Mile to Great Saint Maries Church Cambridge A.D. MDCCXXVIII." On y^e 16th Stone these words "XVI Miles to Cambridge. A.D. MDCCXXVIII."

Dec. 16. 1742. Dr Warren gave to the Barkway Road &c. Eleven [469] Pounds eight shillings, in consideration of y^e same sum wch at his request had been allow'd by y^e College in making up y^e Causey Account A.D. 1728, for the First & Sixteenth Mile-Stone set up on y^e Barkway Road-side, with Dr Mouse's & Mr Hare's Arms cut on y^m.

May 6. 1729. Two Portland Stones something above 6 foot high each, [366] were set up on y^e Right hand side of y^e Road leading fm Cambridge to Barkway. On one is this Inscription "II Miles to Cambridge MDCCXXIX." On y^e other "III Miles to Cambridge MDCCXXIX." These Two Stones were set in y^e room of Two other small ones wch had been plac'd there before. On each of these two New Stones are y^e College Arms. They cost $\overset{\text{£}}{\underset{\text{s}}{\underset{\text{d}}{2:18:06}}}$ apiece, both together $\overset{\text{£}}{\underset{\text{s}}{\underset{\text{d}}{5:17:01}}}$.

May 29. 1729. The Fourth Mile-Stone was set up in y^e room of a small one y^t had been set up before in y^e Barkway road. It is about 6 foot high. Inscription "IIII Miles to Cambridge A.D. MDCCXXIX." College Arms. It cost $\overset{\text{£}}{\underset{\text{s}}{\underset{\text{d}}{03:01:00}}}$ ¹.

May 29th 1730. Y^e 6th 7th 8th & 9th Mile-Stones were set up [381] on y^e Road-side towards Barkway, in y^e room of y^e small ones wch had been plac'd there before. The College Arms are on each of y^m &c. as on y^e Former, mutatis mutandis. These Four

[381] Stones (viz. 6th & 7th six Foot five Inches Long each, 8th five Foot six Inches Long, 9th four Foot ten inches Long) cost $\overset{\text{£}}{12}:\overset{\text{s}}{02}:\overset{\text{d}}{00}$ ¹.

[414] Aug: 25. 1731. The 11th & 12th Milestones set up between Foulmire & Barley. They are Portland Stones. The 11th mile-stone 7 foot High reckoning both in y^e ground & out. The Twelfth 5 foot 10 Inches & Half high: on Both are y^e College Arms. On one side of y^e 11th this Inscription "XI Miles to Cambridge A.D. "MDCCXXXI." & also a Hand pointing to Cambridge: also another Hand pointing y^e other way viz. towards London with "London [415] "Road" written under: on y^e other side of y^e 11th milestone "To Royston," "To Wittleford" with Hands pointing respectively. On y^e 12th Milestone these words "XII Miles to Cambridge A.D. "MDCCXXXI." These Two Stones, & Carriage & setting up &c. cost $\overset{\text{£}}{12}:\overset{\text{s}}{00}:\overset{\text{d}}{00}$. The money was paid to John Woodward Oct: 15. 1731. See his Bill & Receipt in Miscellān Aul: Trin: Cant: vol: III. [78].

[425] Oct: 4. 1732. The 13th & 14th Mile-Stones were set up on y^e side of y^e Road leading from Cambridge to Barkway, in y^e places of y^e Two small Stones wch had been set up before. The present 13th Mile-stone has y^e College Arms cut on it, & "XIII MILES TO "CAMBRIDGE  A.D. MDCCXXXII," and is 6 foot 2 Inches long, (reckoning both aboveground & underground together) 18 Inches broad, & 16 Inches thick. The 14th Stone has y^e College Arms also cut on it & "XIV MILES TO CAMBRIDGE  A.D. "MDCCXXXII," and is of y^e same length & breadth with y^e 13th and is 10 Inches thick. They are Both Portland Stones.

Oct: 18. 1732. Paid Mr Woodward y^e Mason for y^e said Two Stones, including all y^e work about y^m & setting y^m up, $\overset{\text{£}}{06}:\overset{\text{s}}{18}:\overset{\text{d}}{00}$ ².

Oct. 19. 1732. A Circular mark of 14 inches & an half in diameter, & about 2 foot 8 inches fm y^e ground, was cut on y^e South-west Buttress of St Maries Steeple in Cambridge fronting y^e Publick Schools.

From this Buttress y^e sixteen miles from Cambridge to Barkway had before been measur'd.

² Ibid. [87].

MILESTONES ON THE ROAD TO HAVERHILL.

May 11. 1731. I took two men along with me, and with a [457]
Chain of 66 feet in length we measur'd a Mile fm the South-West
Buttress of Great St Maries Church Cambr by y^e Pump, & so over Market hill by y^e Conduit, then thrô Petty Cury, & by X^{ts} College & Eman^l straight on towards Gogmagog hills. Co^mmissary Graves caus'd a large Portland Stone afterwards to be set up on y^e Road-side, at y^e end of this mile, to y^e memory of Mr Worts, who gave money by Will to y^e mending of this Road to Gogmagog hills. We also measur'd Birdbolt Lane y^e same day (viz. May 11. 1731) & found it to be just a Quarter of a mile Long, viz. from y^e Posts by y^e Birdbolt over ag^t Eman: Colt & so by Hog-hill to about 4 foot beyond y^e Northwest corner of Pembroke Hall Library Trumpington Street.

Also Sept: 23. 1736 I took two men & a Boy with me, & with y^e [458] same Chain we measur'd y^e road four miles farther on, from y^e 1st Mile-Stone beyond Eman^l College to Gogmagog Hills, being y^e Road leading to Haverhill & Colchester.

And on Oct: 26. 1736, the 2nd 3^d 4th & 5th Mile-stones were set on y^e road-side. N.B. The Third Milestone is set on a Balk 31 foot forwarder towards Haverhill yⁿ y^e true place. However y^e 4th Mile begins from y^e true place. I paid $\overset{\mathcal{L}}{0} : \overset{s}{2} : \overset{d}{4}$ for measuring, & $\overset{\mathcal{L}}{0} : \overset{s}{5} : \overset{d}{8}$ to Pitches y^e Stone-cutter for his work. See Miscellañ: vol: v. [7].

Aug: 2. 1740. Five miles more were measur'd, beginning at y^e [461]
5th mile stone in y^e Road leading towards Haverhill & Colchester from Cambridge. And the 6th 7th 8th 9th & 10th milestones were the same day plac'd on y^e Right hand side of y^e Road. I paid $\overset{\mathcal{L}}{0} : \overset{s}{2} : \overset{d}{6}$ for the measuring; and $\overset{\mathcal{L}}{0} : \overset{s}{12} : \overset{d}{1}$ to William Pitches y^e Stone Cutter for carriage of y^e stones to their respective places &c. See Miscellañ: Aul:
Trin: Cant: vol. v. [101].

MILESTONES ON THE HUNTINGDON ROAD.

May 15. 1735 being Ascension Day, y^e First Mile from Great [453]
St Maries Church in Cambridge towards Huntingdon was measured;
& May 19. 1735 y^e Second, Third, Fourth & Fifth Miles on y^e same road were measur'd; & May 29. 1735 Five Mile-Stones were set up on y^e Right hand side of y^e sd Huntingdon road. The measuring cost me Three Shillings; & y^e setting up of y^e Stones &c.
cost me Ten Shillings more^l.

Warren has not recorded.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR A TURNPIKE BETWEEN FOULMIRE
& CAMBRIDGE 1724.

- [354] The Clause in that Act relating to Trinity Hall is as follows:
 "Provided always y^t nothing in this Act contain'd shall in any wise
 "affect limit or restrain to any particular place or places the Benefac-
 "tion of D^r Mowse, given in Trust to Trinity Hall in Cambridge
 "aforesaid, for & towards the Repairs of the Roads in & about the
 "said Town & County of Cambridge, or the parts adjacent."

CAUSEY ACCOUNTS.

- [310] The First year y^t I can find of D^r Mouse's Causey Accounts is 1628. The Following years hereafter mention'd are wanting, viz.
 1631, 1632, 1635, 1639, 1642, 1644, 1645, 1646, 1647 1648, 1650, 1651, 1652, 1654, 1655, 1656, 1657, 1658.

ROMAN REMAINS ON TRUMPINGTON ROAD.

- [350] About y^e year 1711 several Paterae, Urns, & other Roman Antiquities were found in digging Gravel on y^e Right hand side of y^e road as we go from Cambridge to Trumpington, about a Q^r of a mile off from y^e one-mile-stone, & not far from y^e willow trees by y^e ditch, & not far from y^e River. The Gravel pits still remain.
 I have seen sev^l of y^e said antiquities, wch have been in y^e possession of D^r Johnson & D^r Andrews Fellows of this College, & of M^r Thompson of Trumpington. One Patera with OF LICINI at y^e bottom of y^e Inside, another having OF MRRAI, another ASCLEWS; all of y^m made of fine red earth glaz'd. I have been told of one y^t has OF DAM or some such like Letters at y^e bottom: (But see N.B. at y^e bottom of this Page.) If so, then that may explain y^e meaning of Dam Hill, as y^e rising ground is call'd to this day, wch is between these Gravel pits & Trumpington. If any body hereafter shall be surpriz'd to find Roman bricks under y^e flooring of D^r Monson's Chamber Num: 6 their wonder will cease, wⁿ they shall be told, y^t they were found in these Gravel pits.

Dimensions of Two of y^e Paterae: (1) is about 6 $\frac{3}{4}$ Inches broad, y^e Brim turning up about an Inch high. (2) is above 4 Inches & an half broad & above 2 Inches high, with a cavity sufficient to contain (as I guess) near half a pint. (3) is.....a Brass ring about 2 inches in diameter. It was found at y^e same place. It belong'd probably, to a Horses bridle. See an account of Paterae in Mont-faucon's Antiquities, vol: 2. p. 91. There is a piece of a large Urn in y^e Coll. Library. This was also found at y^e same place with a great many burnt bones in it.

N.B. On Sept: 6. 1733 M^r Porter Thompson of Trumpington gave me a Piece of a Patera of fine red earth, glaz'd, wch is of y^e same size with that Num: 2. & was found at y^e same place with that. At y^e bottom of y^e Inside are these Letters, DÆMONI.

(41) WILLIAM AYLOFFE ESQ³. [163]

William Aylofffe, Esq, late of Melbourn in Cambridgeshire by Indenture bearing Date Oct: 25. 1690, Devis'd two third parts of His Parsonage Improprate of Gargrave in y^e County of York to S^r Benj: Aylofffe Baronet, Henry Aylofffe, Henry Hitch &c. in trust among other things, y^t Forty five pounds p^r anⁿ part of y^e yearly Rent of y^e s^d two third parts, shou'd be paid to y^e M^r, Fellows & Scholars of Trinity Hall ; Forty pounds whereof to be apply'd to y^e augmentation of y^e two Divinity Fellowships, y^e other Five pounds to y^e College, on condition y^t y^e two Divinity Fellows shou'd alternately, duly, & substantially Read Catechetical Lectures in y^e Chapel on y^e Church Catechism every Wednesday & Friday in Term-time for half an Hour at a time imēdiately after morning Service, so as to go thrō y^e whole Catechism every year, beginning on y^e First Wednesday or Friday in Term next after y^e First of May.

Mr. Aylofffe Dyed since L. Day 1691, & was Buried in Melbourn Church.

June 26. 1730. To-day I went to Melbourn on purpose to Learn [381] any thing relating to M^r Aylofffe. I met with one Dunham an old man who told me he remembred M^r Aylofffe an old man with Grey hairs, y^t He (Mr Aylofffe) had been Cup-bearer to y^e Queen of Bohemia ; y^t he liv'd at Melbourn-Bury, & y^t he dyed there, & was Buried in Melbourn Church. I saw y^e place where he was Buried viz. in y^e Church, in y^e South side of it, under a Large Stone rais'd Altar-wise above 3 Foot above y^e ground. There is no Inscription on y^e Stone. In y^e East window of y^e Chancel there are Two Coats of Arms parted per pale ; y^e First, Sable, a Lyon Rampant Or, Collar'd Gules between 2 Crosses patee in Chief, & one in base of y^e Second (Aylofffe), a Crescent Argent for Difference. The Second is Argent, 3 Heads—whether Fishes or Beasts Heads I cannot tell, perhaps whales Heads—eras'd Sable, I suppose y^e Arms of y^e family of his Wife.

- [381] Dunham told me y^t M^r Aylofffe had set up these Arms in his life-time. I went to the House call'd Melbourn Bury where M^r Aylofffe dwelt, but cou'd find no memorials of him there.

W. W.

- [435] The Stone under wch M^r Aylofffe lyes Buried in Melbourn Church was remov'd lately to Cambridge & Polish'd, & had y^e Aylofffe's Arms & y^e following Inscription cut on it, & then it was carryed back again to Melbourn & Replac'd Nov: 6. 1733. S^r Joseph Aylofffe has lately added y^e Name of Houlding to Aylofffe.

I paid Nov: 7 1733 Five Pounds to John Woodward y^e Stone-cutter for bringing y^e Stone to Cambridge & cutting y^e Aylofffe's Arms & Epitaph, & carrying back again & replacing y^e said Stone in Melbourn Church.

The Inscription is as follows, viz.

“ AN ADVERTISM^t TO MY DEAR FRIENDS & TRUSTEES. [419]

“ My two third parts of the Rectory of Gargrave was bought att
 “ an hundred & tenn pounds p annū and then was thought a great “ peñyworth att that rate the tenants being men of great estate in y^e “ parish & had held it about three-score year to their great profit ;
 “ and after tenn or eleven years, when their Lease ended the Vicar of “ y^e parish desired to hire it ; and offered tenn pounds p aññ more yⁿ “ y^e former tenants payd ; but considering y^t he performed the eccle“ siasticall dutys in y^e Rectory, thô his provision was large (viz.) about
 “ an hundred pounds p aññ, yet I lett him have it for seven years att

[419] "the former rent, and at y^e end of that terme I was forced to abate
 "him tenn poundes p^a añ; soe y^t his rent was a just hundred for seven "yeares; and after that abated more, as the tillage of y^e parish de"creased; and will increase again as y^e tillage & stock of y^e Rectory
 "increases; now y^e reason of both these is evident; for y^e parish
 "being very large, consisting of sixe townships, beside y^e Mother
 "Church of Gargrave (viz.) Steinton, Newton, Coniston, Eiston,
 "Flasby, & Winterbourn (wch only payeth a composition Tythe)
 "so y^t if they should plough upp the sixth part of their ground, wch
 "is very rich for y^e most part, y^e tythes would arise to more yⁿ double
 "y^e present rent; but y^e parishioners who are many of them men of "fayr estates, lay y^e greatest part of their lands to pasture, for y^e
 "benefitt of juyce (as they call it) for there is noe peice of ground of "that compasse and fertility, in those parts, that can rayse young
 "cattell to that heith and bulke that this parish doth, so that they
 "send into this place great numbers of young cattell out of the "neighbouring countrys yearly to be improved here, and therefore
 "'till their groundes begin to be mossy, wch rich groundes are apt to
 "be, they plough upp little but w^t hath been in tillage time out [420] "of minde. I understand from some of quality that a composition
 "Tythe is due to us at so much a head for every beast; but I "was not willing to fall out with them about that wch was intended
 "for charity; notwithstanding it may & ought to be made use of for
 "prevention, if they should designe to reduce their tillage to a small "quantity.

"The person who shall be pleased to goe down & renew y^e lease
 "of this Rectory must begin his journey about our Lady-day, the "Lease ending about y^e end of Aprill; the best way is by Yorke road
 "to Doncaster, (tho it may be not altogether y^e nearest) & soe by "Wakefield & Leeds, to Oatly a markt town, neer to Leithly¹ the "seat of Henry Hitch Esq whose father y^e Deane of Yorke was my
 "worthy & true friend & gave me his assistance in y^e management of "this farme for many years. He may desire his company to Skipton
 "neer Gargrave in order to y^e advantageous leasing of y^e Rectory if "his leasure will permitt, (for he is a man of much businesse, both
 "publicke & private), but if that cannot be, lett it be desired, that "he would write to some friend or acquaintance of his in those "quarters, who may be assistant to him in this businesse. However
 "Mr Grandorge who is Doctor Lister's agent to receive his rent
 "att Gargrave, & parts adjacent, & leaseth his estate, may probably ¹ Keighley?

“be persuaded to assist in this businesse, uppon a letter of request [420]
“from y^e Doctor.

“The principall enquiry to be made is whether y^e tillage of “y^e severall townshippes be lately improved or lessened, and measures “taken accordingly.

“I imagine y^t the present tenant will not part with it if Mr “Grandorg will be pleased to procure any man of stock to appear
“about it. However lett y^e covenants be y^e same with those in y^e “present lease, wch discharg y^e landlord from y^e pensions payable to “y^e King & Vicar, y^e charg of y^e militia, & all town charges whatso“ever (publicke assessments excepted) for I have observed y^t their “impositions uppon y^e landlord in those rates are unreasonable; if “Mr Grandorg be willing to assist in y^e leasing to our advantage, he “must be presented & requited for his paynes, for I thinke he is an “attorney.”

[469] Sir Nathanael Lloyd's Body was brought to Trinity Hall & placed in the Ante-Chapel on Tuesday night April 7th 1741.

On a Plate affixed to the Coffin were these words,

" Sr
 " Nathaniel Lloyd
 " Died Mar^h y^e 30th
 " 1741
 " Aged 72."

Sir Nathanael Lloyd was 71 years old Nov: 29. 1740. He Dyed at Sunbury.

He was Buried in Trinity Hall Chapel before Morning Prayer Apr: 8. 1741: and great care was taken to have the Funeral Solemnity perform'd punctually according to his Will².

¹ For a copy of the Will, see Miscellanea, vol. v. [104], and for a copy of the Inscription in his own hand, ibid. [105]. The date in the text is the date of the draft.

² The financial arrangements for carrying out Sir Nathanael Lloyd's bequest are not very clear. The college seems to have received the following sums:—

Legacy and interest	£ 32 26
From Lloyd's executors	£ 626
	£ 385 2

The expenditure was as follows:—

Hall	£ 226 4
Battery &c.	67 9
North and South sides	38 1
	£ 332 4

leaving a balance of £ 5 28 for various expenses in other parts of the fabric. See accounts for 1743 in Miscellanea, vol. v. [128].

(49) SIR JAMES MARRIOTT.

Sir James Marriott, K^t, Judge of the High Court of Admiralty [166] and Master of Trinity Hall, presented to the College a marble Bust of Lord Chief Justice Mansfield by Nollekens as an ornament for the Dining Hall.

(50) D^r ANDREW.

Dr Andrew by will dated 15 May, 1747, bequeathed to the College a sum which with the accumulations thereof should amount to twenty thousand pounds for the particular purposes mentioned in his will: this legacy the College finally refused Dec^r 31st, 1793. Vide Order Book, pp. 127-8. By the same will he also gave a further legacy of 100[£] to the College Chest and a piece of Plate. These legacies the College accepted. The legacy of twenty thousand pounds which was rejected, involved the College in two Chancery Suits: vide the first in Vesey Jun^r Reports vol: 3 and the second in same Reports vol: 9. The Briefs and papers in both cases are placed in the Library¹.

See his monument in the Chapel and his portrait in the parlour.

¹ The case in all its stages is recorded in Vesey, Jun., Reports, vol. III., pp. 633-649; vol. VII., pp. 223-4; vol. IX., pp. 525-535. Dr Andrew, by will dated 15 May, 1747, directed that his 3 per cent. annuities in the Bank of England, amounting to about £17,200, should be sold and invested in freehold land. Four of his sisters were to have a life interest. After their death the lands were to be vested in Trinity Hall. Four new scholarships were to be founded for scholars educated at Merchant Taylors' School, London, "who should 'have been in the bench or table of the said school.'" Each such scholar was to receive £20 a year in addition to the customary allowances and payments. The remaining income was to accumulate till it amounted—apart from capital—to £20,000, which was to be laid out in additional buildings... "either according to the plan already made"—the plan prepared by Burrough & Essex in 1745, and now hung in the College Library—"or such other as the 'Society might think more convenient.'" He also provided that certain allowances should be made to the Master, the College officers, and the Fellows, on the analogy of the Causey fund. When the £20,000 had been raised and spent, four new Fellowships were to be established, carrying the same provisions, allowances, and privileges as the other Civil Law Fellowships, but restricted, like the scholarships, to Students from Merchant Taylors' School. Dr Andrew died in 1747, soon after his will was executed. In 1793 the last of the beneficiaries died also. The Master and Fellows first tried to induce the Merchant Taylors' Company to consent to an alteration of the trusts, and to seek Parliamentary sanction for the change. The attempt failed. The Master and Wardens of the Merchant Taylors' School filed an information against the College and James Andrew (Lois Andrew's executor and heir-at-law) praying that the trusts of the will might be duly performed. The Master and Fellows declined to act as required, renounced the trust, and refused the bequest, on the ground that they could not "accept such trust and execute the same without doing very great prejudice to their said 'College.'" [See Order Book, pp. 127-8. 31 Dec., 1793.] Litigation followed. The

(51) D^r CALVERT.

- [167] D^r Calvert, Dean of the Arches, and late a Fellow of Trinity Hall, presented to the College in the year 1779 a set of silver knives and forks for the use of the Fellows Table. He also gave by his will the sum of fifty pounds for the purchase of a piece of Plate.
Q. What weight? The Tea Urn¹.

(52) LORD ROKEBY.

Mathew Robinson (Lord Rokeby), Fellow of Trinity Hall, gave by will the sum of one hundred pounds to be divided among the Fellows Ann: Dom., 1800.

[Order

(53) HORATIO GOODBEHERE².

Horatio Goodbehere, Fellow Commoner of the College, left by his will to the Master and Fellows £100 a year for the purpose of founding a Fellowship, the bequest to take effect after the death of Mrs Ruth Murray. He himself imposed no further restrictions or conditions. But the following regulations were made by the Master and Fellows, 6 Jan: 1828³.

GOODBEHERE FELLOWSHIP.

"It is hereby determined and arranged by the Master and Fellows assembled at this present Audit as follows, that is to say:

"That every Person who shall hereafter become the Fellow upon the Goodbehere foundation shall be resident, and assisting the Tutors, and taking his share of the Chapel duty in common with them.

"That no Person shall become a Fellow upon the Goodbehere foundation unless he shall be a Graduate of the University of Cambridge, and shall undertake (in case he be not then in Priest's orders) that he will proceed bona-fide to become Priest as soon as the circumstances of his age and standing may admit.

main issues were (1) whether the College by its previous action had implicitly accepted the trusts that it now refused; (2) whether the College could retain the legacy of plate and £100, while renouncing the other bequest. The suit was also complicated by questions relating to moneys other than the 3 per cent. annuities, the interest of which had been received by the College and paid over to the beneficiaries. Finally the Court decided that the College was entitled to retain the legacies of £100 and the plate, as being distinct from the other dispositions which they refused to accept.

³ Order Book, pp. 181-2.

"That he shall have Rooms and Fellow's Commons provided for [Order him by the College, but shall not be entitled to any share of Book]
"Dividend or other emoluments to which the Fellows upon the "principal foundation are entitled, nor be eligible to any College
"living until the same shall have been previously declined by the "Presbyter Fellows upon the principal foundation.

"That he shall not have the right of voting at any election of "Master or Fellows, nor of attending at any College Audit, nor of "interfering in any way with the management and conduct of the "funds and property of the College.

"That the Fellowship shall be voidable by the acceptance of any
"Church preferment, but not void until declared so by a Majority "of the Masters and Fellows; and that in case he shall at any time
"become a Fellow upon the principal foundation he shall thereby
"cease to be the Fellow upon the Goodbehere foundation.

"That every election of a Goodbehere Fellow shall proceed upon
"the same principles as the election of the other Fellows; that is "to say that it shall take place within a month, and shall be made
"in College, by the votes of the Master and major part of the "Fellows; but the election shall be valid if made by a majority "of Fellows although the Master shall not concur with them. Pro"vided that in default of such election the appointment shall lapse
"to the Master, subject to the Order made 27 Dec^r 1735. And "Provided also that whenever the vacancy occurs in Term no
"Election shall be made until after the expiration of ten days from "such vacancy; and that whenever the vacancy occurs out of "Session no election shall be made until after the expiration of the "ten first days of the Term next following.

"And it is further determined and ordered that the above regu"lations shall be inserted in a Book to be provided for that purpose, and
"that every Person to be admitted Goodbehere Fellow shall previous "to his admission subscribe his consent thereto and a declaration that "he will faithfully and bona-fide conform to the same according to
"the true intent and meaning thereof."

The College came into possession of the bequest in 1849, the capital amount being £3,002 16s. 5d. 3 per cent. Consols; and an order was made, 20 Dec., 1850, to the following effect:—

"Whereas it is considered that the Goodbehere Fellow may with "advantage to the College take part as Assistant Tutor in conducting "the Examinations and in maintaining the discipline of the College,
"it is ordered that the Goodbehere Fellow shall, so long as he [Order “performs the duty of such assistant Tutor, be allowed Fellow’s Book] “Commons and such a set of rooms rent free as shall be assigned to “him by the Master and Fellows¹.”

[When the east side of the College was destroyed by fire in 1852, the Consols standing to the credit of the Goodbehere fund were sold, and the proceeds applied in part payment of the cost of rebuilding. The repayment of the capital of the Fund with interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent was treated as a mortgage on the new building and the rents accruing from the rooms contained in it².]

² This statement was drawn up 22 Jan., 1554, probably at the time of Pole's visitation. See the copy (obtained by Dr Oxenden in the year 1700) in Miscellanea, vol. II. [4], and a manuscript copy in the Library of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, cvi. 330. Malden suggests that it may have been made on Harvey's accession to the Mastership, but the evidence is not convincing. (History of Trinity Hall, pp. 99—100, note.) For Pole's Ordinances see Lamb, Documents relating to the University and Colleges of Cambridge, pp. 237, foll.: London: 1838.

[363] I copyed y^e Declaratio Status Collegij fm a Parchment Copy. (See Arch: Coff.) I some time after compar'd our Parchment Copy with y^e Status Aulae S. Trinitatis wch belongs to Benet College Library, & is set down in A B^p Parkers Catalogue p. 80 amongst y^e Miscellan: O. Statutoř. It agrees in y^e main with that at Benet College wch is in Paper: only y^e order in wch the particulars are set down is different, & sometimes y^e words are different too; & the Names of y^e Master, Fellows & Scholars are put down in y^e Paper wch are not in our Parchment Copy. The names are set down thus:

“Noīa M^{ri} et Socioř jam existeñ ib^m

“Stephanus Gardiner E^pus Wintoñ M^r Sive Custos

“Collegij supradict^ſ

	“Johannes Taylor	Thomas Cheston
	“Edwardus Buckn ^h m	Wil ^l mus Bulward

	“Henricus Harvy	Henricus Gybbon
	“Wil ^l mus Mowse	Stacye
	“Thomas Goodw ^y n	Mawnsell.”
	“Edwardus Cantrell

That wch belongs to Benet College Library seems to have been y^e Original Paper in wch things were minuted down wⁿ Parker & Redmayn & Mey took y^e State of y^e College.

¹ The totals, including Stukeley Hospital, omitted in the summary, should be: Gross income, £142. 14s.; outgoings, £23. 12s.; nett income, £119. 2s.

The Original Pass was found about Lady Day 1736 in a Chamber Num: 7 at Trinity Hall. As men were at work in setting up a Stone-Chimney-piece, & removing some part of y^e Wainscot, it dropp'd down from behind y^e Wainscot on y^e North-side of y^e Chimney. It seems to have been hid behind y^e Wainscot designedly.
 The Pass is in y^e possession of D^r Zachary Grey Minister of S^t
 Peter's & S^t Giles's in Cambridge.

[396] Mr Twyne in his Antiquitatis Academiae Oxoniensis Apologia, Edit: Oxon: 1608. p. 379, Quotes Dr Caius as saying fm John Major, y^t about his time there were 4000 or 5000 Students at Cambridge. But Twyne did not believe it to be true.

Dr Fuller in his History of y^e University of Cambridge p. 143¹, ¹ Fuller, History of the University of Cambridge, VIII., §§ 10—12: pp. 201—2. London: 1840.

says, y^t Dr Caius took an exact account of all y^e Students at [396] Cambridge, wch amounted to 1783 in y^e year 1574, viz.

1. Peter House	096	6. Gonvil &		10. Jesus Coll:	118
2. Clare Hall	129	Caius College	062	11. X ^{ts} Coll:	157
3. Pembroke Hall	087	7. Kings College	140	12. St John's Coll:	271

	473		356		954
	356
	954
	1783

See also more p^ticlrly Dr Caius's Hist: Cant: Acad: p. 56 &c. Dr Fuller says in his Hist: of y^e University of Camb^r. p. 163, That "an exact survey was taken of y^e Number of Students in y^e University, "whose Total Sum amounted unto 2998, viz. A.D. 1621¹."

A great difference between y^e Number in 1621, & y^e Number wch I took in y^e year 1727; and yet there are more Fellowships in y^e University now than there were then. But whoever does but consider y^e different dispositions of y^e King & Court &c., in y^e year 1621 from what they were in y^e year 1727 may easily account for y^e difference.

In Mr Twyne's Apologia beforementio'd I found y^e following passage quoted, p. 213, from y^e Liber Censualis or Domesday Book, [397] viz. "Burgus de Grentbridge in Decem Custodias dividitur & 387 "Mansiones habet—sed pro Castro destructae fuerunt domus octo—"decim."

This Domesday Book (consisting of Two Thick volumes) is now in y^e Exchequer. It contains an account y^t was taken in William y^e Conqueror's time (about y^e year 1086) of y^e estates in England &c. [See Dr Prideaux's Connect: 2nd vol: 8^{vo} p. 650 &c.] One of y^e volumes is about as large as one of our Church Bibles: The other is not so large, but very thick. In one volume are 382 Vellum Leaves; in y^e other 450. At y^e end of y^e Smaller Thick volume are these words, viz. "Anno—vicesimo p^o Regni Wil^{ti} Facta est ista Descriptio "non solum p^o hos tres Comitatus sed etiam p^o alios." The 3 counties there mention'd are Norfolk, & Suffolk, & (I think) Essex.

Oct: 5. 1730 I had an opportunity of perusing Domesday Book by y^e favour of a Friend belonging to y^e Exchequer. I turn'd to y^e passage quoted by Mr Twyne, & had some hopes (thô very small hopes) of finding something concerning y^e University. But nothing did I find of that matter.

¹ Fuller, History of the University of Cambridge, ix., §§ 5—8: p. 117.

- [397] In fol: 189 of y^e Larger volume I found these words, viz. "Burgum "de Grentebrige p uno hondreſ se defend T. R. E. In hoc Burgo "fueſ 7 sunt decē custodie. In prima custodia LIIII^{or} masure ex "his 11^e sunt Waste. In hac p^{ma} custodia h^t Ilan⁹ com' V burgenses "nichil reddentes. Hec eađ una custodia p duab⁹ cōputabaſ T. R. E. - [398] There is a difference between M^r Twyne's account & mine as to y^e Numbers of y^e Masure & Dom⁹ Destructe. And those persons y^t shall read y^e foregoing Particulars will make such observations as shall occur to y^m. My observation is this, That if it shou'd be allow'd y^t about y^e year 1086 there were 387 Mansiones in y^e Town of Grentbridge according to M^r Twyne, & y^t that was y^e whole Number, & y^t each Mansio had Four persons dwelling in it, this wou'd make y^e Number 1548; wch being deducted from 7688, it follows y^t there are now 6140 persons in Cambridge (including y^e University) more yⁿ there were in y^e time of William y^e Conqueror.
- [431] Mar: 12. 1733² I consulted Domesday Book again at y^e Exchequer, & I found y^t y^e Masure were 373, & y^t y^e Domus Destructe were 27. So y^t I find my acc^t is exact, & M^r Twine's is not so. But then y^e Calculation wch I make afterwards shou'd be alter'd.

(12) POOR MONEY

- [483] Meñ. the Poor money paid by y^e College is $\overset{\text{£}}{4} : \overset{s}{5} : \overset{d}{4}$ p^r añ : 1^d p^r week plac'd by y^e Butler on y^e Head of each Fellow & Fellow Coñoner.
 If y^e pence amount to more yⁿ $4 : 5 : 4$ at y^e Audit, then y^e overplus to be paid to y^e Chest, if to less, then y^e Chest to make it out.

Xtmas exceedings to be Divided thus: [483]

The Master & every Fellow, & every Fellow Comoner pay a whole share if present; & if absent then a Half share. Every Scholar (viz. Pension^r) if present pays a Half share. If a Pension^r is absent [484] then he pays a Quarter share. Sizars pay nothing.

Brewers & Bakers Xtmas Box put into y^e Xtmas exceedings.

Out of y^e whole must be deducted first y^e 20^s for y^e Brewer & 20^s for y^e Baker. (See y^e Butler's Book pro anno 1691 with this Division made under Dr Oxenden's Hand.)

(13) PARS DEDUCENDA.

Wheat at $\overset{\text{℥}}{0} = \overset{\text{s}}{6} = \overset{\text{d}}{8}$ p^r Q^r
Malt at $0 = 5 = 0$ p^r Q^r.

Two Thirds to be paid in money; and one Third to be paid in Corn, according to y^e Act of Parliam^t in Q. Elizabeth Reign. The whole entred in y^e Reditus in Cowcher.

Two Thirds recd in money in Bursar's Book, & one Third in Corn. The Last Third charg'd to y^e Bursar twice in y^e account; first in y^e Reditus, where he is charg'd with y^e whole; secondly in y^e Major Dividend, where he is charg'd with y^e same Third in Corn. Now because y^e Bursar receives more yⁿ one Third of y^e whole Reditus in Corn-money according as y^e price of Corn happens to be above

$\overset{\text{s}}{6} - \overset{\text{d}}{8}$ p^r Q^r for Wheat, or above $\overset{\text{s}}{5}$ p^r Q^r for Malt; Therefore to make even, Deduct one Third of y^e whole Reditus fm y^e Corn at Lady Day & Mich^s, and y^e remainder goes to y^e Dividend. The Third, or Pars Deducenda, at Lady Day is found to be $\overset{\text{℥}}{24} : \overset{\text{s}}{16} : \overset{\text{d}}{02\frac{1}{2}}$. The Third, or Pars Deducenda, at Mich^s is found to be $\overset{\text{℥}}{24} : \overset{\text{s}}{13} : \overset{\text{d}}{11\frac{1}{2}}$.

WILLIAM WARREN

(1) PERSONAL.

I was Born in y^e College (wch is now y^e Vicarage House) at [487] Ashford in Kent April 27. 1683. My Father M^r Samuel Warren was Vicar of Ashford many years, viz. fm about Mich^s 1673 to March 16. 172⁹.

I was Admitted Siz^r of Trinity Hall May 3. 1700. D^r Oxenden was my good friend. I was Chosen & Admitted Scholaris de minori forma Jan: 10. 170¹/₂.

I turn'd Pension^r Jan: 15. 170³/₄.

D^r Bramston our Master gave me y^e Library-keeper's place May 31. 1705.

I had y^e Grace of y^e House for my Degree of LL.B. & accordingly I went to y^e Fellows Table Oct. 13. 1705. I kept my Exercise & was Admitted LL.B. about y^e Comēcement time 1706.

I was chosen Fellow of Trinity Hall Sept: 3. 1712 and Admitted Sept: 27. 1712.

I was appointed Curate of St Edwards Camb^r Dec: 22. 1716: and about y^e same time I had y^e Grace of y^e College for y^e Degree of LL.D.

I kept my 1st Act in y^e Schools Febr: 18. 171⁶/₇.

I was admitted LL.D. Mar: 30. 1717.

I kept an Opponency to M^r Reeve June 5. 1717.

I was Created LL.D. on y^e Comēcement Tuesday 1717.

(4) THE PRESBYTER FELLOWS' DUTIES.

[488] A Copy of y^e Order made Aug: 5. 1731 by y^e Master & Fellows of Trinity Hall, viz.

"Aug: 5. 1731.

"Whereas y^e care of y^e Chappel & performance of Divine Service
 "therein belongs only to y^e two Presbyter Fellows of y^e College,
 "It is order'd & Directed that y^e form of Election into y^e Fellowship
 "of Dr Nichols now vacant shall be in locum Socij Presbyteri dicti
 "Collegij & y^t he shall be accordingly admitted in Socium Presbyterum
 "& at y^e time of his Admission be acquainted y^t it is his duty to take "care of y^e Chappel in his turn with y^e other Presbyter and y^t y^e
 "same method shall be observ'd upon every future vacancy of either
 "of y^e Presbyter Fellowships and y^t no person unless he shall actually
 "be in Holy Orders is capable of being admitted into y^e said
 "Fellowships.

"Nath. Lloyd Master.

"Fra. Dickins

"J. Andrew

"John Chetwode

"Steph: Cottrell

"C. Pinfold¹

"Hen: Monson

"Ed: Simpson."

As this Order was Signing by y^e Master & Fellows, I desired to be excus'd from Setting my Hand to it; because I apprehended y^t y^e care of y^e Chapel belong'd to all y^e Fellows, at least to all those of y^m who were appointed & requir'd by their respective Founders to be in Holy Orders.

If I am right in this my notion, I think y^t this Order bears hard upon y^e Two Divinity Fellows. But if I shou'd be convinc'd & find myself to be in error, I shou'd then approve of y^e Order. Because I desire y^t every man may know his Duty, and y^t he do it accordingly with diligence.

[489] The Case seems to me to be this.

A.D. 1350 Bp Bateman founded Trinity Hall.

A.D. 1352 The Statutes wch He had drawn up for y^e College were confirm'd by Him, & y^e A.Bp of Canterbury &c.

In y^e Statutes He requires y^t there shou'd be a Master & Twenty Fellows, Ten of wch at least shou'd be Legistae, & Seven at least Canonistae. The Seven Canonistae were injoyn'd to be Presbyteri.

The Legistae might be in Holy Orders or not as they pleas'd, for [489] y^e Statutes are silent as to that point.

He requires Half of y^e Fellows to be always resident in College & amongst those Resident Fellows he requires y^t there shou'd be Two Presbyteri at least.

All this proceeds upon y^e supposition of there being a Master & Twenty Fellows in y^e Society.

But Bp Bateman dyed before he had settled sufficient revenues for his design'd Number; & therefore we have a Master & but Three Fellows upon Bp Bateman's Foundation.

After y^e Death of Bp Bateman, & before y^e Reign of Q. Elizabeth, Simon Dalling founded Two Fellowships. He appointed his Fellows to be Canonists. Robert Goodknape founded one. His Fellow was to be a Priest (socius sacerdotali in ordine constitutus). Dr Hewke founded one. His Fellow was to be a Priest. Bp Nick founded Three Fellowships. One of his Fellows was to be a Civilista, the other two to be Canonistae, & to go into Priest's Orders within a year next after their Admission.

How y^e matter went on as to y^e Number of Fellows actually in orders in y^e College before H. 8th Reign does not appear. But in y^e 37th year of y^e Reign of K. Hen: 8th there was a Declaration of [490] y^e State of y^e College made by Matthew Parker, John Redmayn, & William Mey, wch I have seen in Benet College Library, & agreeable to wch I have now an account before me wch was taken out of y^e Augmentation Office, & sent to Dr Oxenden A.D. 1700 by Mr Battely. (See Arch: Coll: & Miscellan: Aul: Trin: vol: 3)¹. In this Declaration Two of Bp Bateman's Fellows are mention'd as Presbrs & one as not Presbr. Also Dr Hewke's Fellow is mention'd as a Presbr. Also Mr Goodknapp's Fellow is mention'd as a Presbr. Also Two of Bp Nick's Fellows are mention'd as Presbrs and his Third Fellow as not Presbr. And accordingly these six Presbr Fellows as also Simon Dalling's Two Fellows had their stipend assign'd y^m as Presbrs.

This Declaration of y^e state of y^e College was made about twelve years before Q. Eliz. began her Reign.

In y^e 1st year of Q. Eliz^s Reign an Act of Parliamt was made "for y^e sure establyshment of y^e Corporacion of y^e Colledge & of all "other mens rights & interests" and this in case y^t any "Cavillacion "shuld at any tyme be had or used."

From wch words I observe y^t if any dispute shou'd have arisen

¹ Now Miscellanea, vol. II. [4]; and see pp. 331—8.

[490] before this Act was made concerning those Rights wch are confirm'd by this Act of Parliam^t, this Act itself calls it Cavillation. The Act also says, "y^t y^e Master Fellowes & Scollers & their Successours "shall & may haue houlde—take & enjoye all & singuler mannours "landes tenementys possessions pencions porcions tithes rights titles "interests services & all other hereditamentys whatsoever appertaining "to y^e said Colledge—or accepted or reputed to be belonging to y^e "same or accepted reputed used occupied or taken as part or parcell

[491] "of y^e possession of y^e said Colledge or Hall in such sorte fourme "estate condicion & degree as y^e same weare given or graunted, & "as they nowe haue y^e same. And y^t all such gyftes estates & "grauntes to y^e said Colledge shall be good & effectuall in y^e lawe "to all intentys construccions & purposes." Afterwards comes a Proviso "y^t this Acte shall not in eny wyse extend to take awaye "or be preiudiciall unto any of y^e Fellowes or Scollers of y^e said "Colledge or Hall for displacing any of y^m from any maner of offyce "or rome within or without y^e said Colledge or for y^e takying awaye "of any mañer of profyt comōditie or aduantage to them or any of "them belonging or appertaining."

Now the quotations wch I have made from this Act of Parliament I take to be a full confirmation of y^e point wch I aim at, viz. That all those Fellowships wch were given to y^e College & intended for Presbyters by y^e Donors or Founders of y^m ought to be possess'd & enjoy'd by Presbyters: for otherwise how can y^e College hold & enjoy such estates as were given for such purposes, in such sort form estate condition & degree as y^e same were given; or how can such gifts & grants be said to be effectual to all Intents Constructions & purposes; or how can any Fellow's profit comōdity or advantage be said not to be Infring'd, if any other burthen or duty be impos'd upon him yⁿ w^t the Donor or Founder intended or mention'd?

If it shou'd be said y^t there has been but one Presbyter-Fellow, or two or three for time out of mind; I don't think y^t that is sufficient & satisfactory. Why have there not been more? A Custom is not therefore right merely because it has been of long standing if y^e [492] original of things appears & it can be prov'd y^t y^e will & intention of y^e Donor is not fulfill'd. There does not appear indeed any Certainty what y^e Number of Presbyter-Fellows has been actually in College ever since y^e Declaration beforemention'd in Hen. y^e 8th's Reign. And I don't find in y^e Cowcher so much as one Presbyter or D^r or y^e Xtian name of any one of y^e Fellows mention'd for 100 years together fm y^e beginning of y^e Book in y^e year 1587.

I think Dr Bramston is y^e 1st Dr Mention'd. Presbyters are mention'd [492] afterwards wⁿ Mr Ayloffe's Catechetical Lectures were settled. And there have been two of y^e Fellows in Orders, & they have been y^e Catechists since. And now & then a Fellow has gone into Orders besides.

As to y^e point of performing Divine Service in y^e Chapel for above 100 years past I believe y^e truth of y^e matter has been in y^e main this. There has been but one Fellow in Orders sometimes, & sometimes two or more. When there has been only One, He has done y^e duty himself wⁿ in College, & in health. When he has been ill, or his occasions have call'd him abroad, then y^e Lay-fellows us'd to Read prayers till y^e Priest was well again or return'd. When there have been two or more Fellows in Orders at one time, I believe Prayers have been expected to be read by them in y^e 1st place, & wⁿ they were at any time ill, or abroad, then those at home took care of y^e Chapel. And I have been told y^t Dr Brookbank (a Lay-fellow) [493] has read Prayers for Half a year together. Thus much I can say from my own knowledge, y^t I have heard Dr Johnson, Mr Meredith, & sev^l other Lay-fellows, read Prayers often. For my own part when I came to be Fellow, I thought y^e office of reading Publick Prayers did so much belong to a Minister y^t I did not so much care y^t Laymen should do that office, if it cou'd be easily avoided; & therefore I have often for a good while together done it myself rather yⁿ leave that office to Laymen. Not but that Laymen have sometimes done it y^mselves since I have been Fellow, & wⁿ Both of y^e Presbyter-fellows have been out of College; but I have endeavour'd to prevent that practice sometimes by getting Clergymen from other Colleges to do y^e Duty. If that has occasion'd a notion in y^e Lay-fellows y^t y^e care of y^e Chapel belongs entirely to y^e Two Divinity Fellows; still I am of y^e opinion y^t we ought to have more yⁿ Two of y^e Fellows in Orders, & y^t y^e care of y^e Chapel belongs either to y^e whole Number of Fellows, so y^t y^e duty be done either by y^mselves or by others for y^m, as y^e custom is in other Colleges, or else y^t y^e whole care of y^e Chapel shou'd rest upon those only who are appointed by their respective Founders to go into Holy Orders. Upon y^e whole I think [494] thus: either y^e point I am contending for is confirm'd by y^e Act of Parliament, or it is not; if it is, then there is no room for any further dispute; if it is not, then I presume y^e point is left just as it was before y^e Act was made, & then what y^e will & desire of y^e Founders of Divinity Fellowships was, need not be mention'd again, and y^e will of y^e Founders of such Fellowships I think ought to be fulfill'd so far as is consistent with y^e Laws of y^e Land.

[494] If I am wrong in my notion, I am sure I don't desire to be so, but to be set right.

I shou'd be glad if any Rich & Good man wou'd settle a Stipend for a Chaplain, or y^t y^e Society itself wou'd do it by allowing something out of our profits yearly for that purpose. This wou'd make y^e matter easy to everybody, & there need be no more doubt about it.

W. W.

Trinity Hall

Aug: 21. 1731.

If it shou'd be thought y^t those words in y^e Statute De Residentia & Absentia, viz. "Duo Socij Presbyteri ad minus semper in Collegio remaneant, ne Socij Divinis destituantur officiis residentes": I say, if it shou'd be thought y^t those words imply y^t y^e whole duty of y^e Chapel is to be perform'd by two certain Presbyter Fellows all y^e year round; this is a mistaking of y^e meaning of y^e words; for these words proceed upon y^e supposition of there being a Master & twenty Fellows upon y^e Foundation, & y^t Seven of y^e Fellows at least are in Holy Orders, & y^t two of y^e seven shou'd always be resident, & y^t w^h those two shall be absent, other two at least of y^e seven shou'd be [495] resident & do duty. For it is to be observ'd y^t in y^e same Statute leave is given to one Fellow as well as another, & consequently to a Presbyter Fellow as well as a Lay Fellow, to be absent for a certain time upon his Lawfull occasions, without any diminution of his profits, wch cannot possibly be if there are but Two Divinity Fellows, & they to be constantly resident to do y^e duty of y^e Chapel. Again; If it shou'd be said that M^r Ayloff's Foundation of Catechetical Lectures may be urg'd to prove y^t y^e Two Presbyter-Fellows are oblig'd thereby to do y^e whole duty of y^e Chapel through^t y^e year; it may be answer'd y^t y^e whole Duty requir'd by M^r Ayloff is only to Read Lectures on y^e Church Catechism on every Wednesday & Friday in Term-time. This is to be perform'd by y^e Two Divinity Fellows "set forth & "appointed to that purpose, & in case of sickness or absence, by some "Divine approv'd by y^e major part of y^e Fellows of y^e College then "resident." There is no mention of any other Duty to be done by y^e two Divinity Fellows, & therefore no more is to be requir'd to be done by y^m upon y^e account of M^r Ayloff's Foundation. See The Deed, [pp. 295—301].
